MEDIA INFORMATION

Sun Devil Media Relations Office

Under the supervision of Associate Athletic Director for Communications Mark Brand; Media Relations Director Doug Tammaro; Associate Sports Information Director Steve Rodriguez; Assistant Sports Information Directors Corinne Calabro, Maggie Emmons, Jeremy Hawkes and Thomas Lenneberg; and a staff of undergraduate student interns, the Sun Devil media relations office strives to serve as intermediary between Sun Devil athletics and the media and general public in the most cooperative and professional manner possible.

Credentials and Parking

Outlets who held credentials for the 2011 season need only contact Doug Tammaro at 480-965-5799 to renew for 2012. First-time requests should be made in writing on appropriate letterhead as soon as possible, but no later than two weeks before the desired game.

Direct correspondence to Doug Tammaro, Director of Media Relations, Carson Student-Athlete Center, Arizona State University, Tempe, Arizona 85287-2505.

Limited press parking is located in lots surrounding Sun Devil Stadium. A desire for parking passes should be stated in the credential(s) requests.

Road Game Credentials

Requests for credentials and parking for ASU road games should be made through Mark Brand. He will confirm credential(s) requests with opponent sports information directors.

Todd Graham Press Conference

The weekly Todd Graham press conferences will be held on Monday (12 noon) of game weeks in the Dutson Theater at The Carson Student-Athlete Center (third floor) on ASU's campus.

Sun Devil Stadium Press Box

In its 20th season of use, the Sun Devil Stadium press box is one of the premier press facilities in the nation. The fully air-conditioned box is located atop the upper deck of the west side of the stadium. The press box is one level, with the exception of an open photography deck on the roof. The main writer's area is located at midfield and to the right of the elevator. Booth space flanks the large central working area. A separate eating area is to the right of the elevator, directly behind the working press area. Rest rooms are to the left of the elevator.

Will Call

"Will Call" for Sun Devil home football games is located at the south end zone ticket office. It opens an hour and a half before kickoff.

Press Box Services

Olson Statistical Services will again provide all statistical information in the Sun Devil Stadium press box. The play-by-play account, halftime statistics, final statistics, game notes and coaches' quotes will be distributed. Also, a play-by-play account of down and distance will be provided verbally over the press box public address system and over a hard line for radio and television. Scores of other games are also available.

Wireless Internet service is available in the main press box.

Snacks and soft drinks and a meal are available to media members beginning an hour and a half before kickoff.

Photographers

Sideline access is restricted to working photographers from media outlets according to NCAA rules. On game day, photographers must show their credential to the attendant at the southwest end zone in order to secure a second credential. Both credentials must be worn for sideline access.

Postgame Interviews

The Dutson Theater (located on the third floor of the Carson Center) is utilized for post-game interviews for ASU players and coaches. Head coach Dennis Erickson and requested student-athletes will be available to the media following a brief "cooling off" period. ASU's locker room is closed.

Those desiring interviews with the opposing coach and players should proceed to the north end of Sun Devil Stadium to the visitor's locker room.

Press Access

The press gate is located at the southwest corner of Sun Devil Stadium. The elevator to the press box is situated on the west side of the stadium at the main concourse level.

Telephones

Approximately 15 telephones are available to the media in the seating area of the press box. All telephones are for credit card or collect calls only. In addition, three pay telephones are located in the rear of the press box for private telephone calls. To install telephones in the Sun Devil Stadium press box, contact Qwest at 1-800-603-6000. Radio stations installing phones for broadcasts should specify the usage by indicating the need for a radio loop for broadcasting and should use Doug Tammaro's name as the contact.

Real-Time Data Rights

The acceptance of media credentials is an acknowledgement of Arizona State's rights to the game and play-by-play coverage and your agreement to abide by any restrictions ASU may place on real-time play-by-play coverage and use of comprehensive game statistics. Failure to abide by these restrictions implemented by ASU may result in revocation of press credentials. Arizona State reserves the right to grant approval for distribution of real-time play-by-play, game-related statistics and information through the Internet.

PAC-12 CONFERENCE

THE CONFERENCE OF CHAMPIONS

Built on a firm foundation of academic excellence and superior athletic performance, the Conference ushered in a new era on July 1, 2011, officially becoming the Pac-12 Conference with the additions of the University of Colorado and University of Utah.

Just 27 days after the Conference officially changed its named, Commissioner Larry Scott announced the creation of the Pac-12 Networks on July 27, 2011, solidifying a landmark television deal and putting the Conference on the forefront. The Networks, including one national network and six regional networks, in conjunction with four of the nation's largest cable operators, marked the first time a U.S. collegiate conference or any other programmer has launched a collection of networks across a variety of platforms, rather than a sole network. In addition, the "TV everywhere" rights will allow fans to access coverage outside the home on any digital device, including smartphones and tablet computers.

On the field, the Pac-12 rises above the rest, upholding its tradition as the "Conference of Champions"®, claiming an incredible 119 NCAA team titles since 1999-2000, including nine in 2012-13. That is an average of over nine championships per academic year. Even more impressive has been the breadth of the Pac-12's success, with championships coming in 28 different men's and women's sports. The Pac-12 has led or tied the nation in NCAA Championships in 46 of the last 52 years. The only exceptions being in 1980-81, 1988-89, 1990-91 and 1995-96 when the Conference finished second, and only twice finished third (1998-99 and 2004-05).

For the seventh-consecutive year, the Pac-12 had the most NCAA titles or tied for the most of any conference in the country, winning at least six every year since 2000-01. No other conference has won double-digit NCAA crowns in a single year, the Pac-12 doing so six times, including a record 14 in 1996-97.

Spanning nearly a century of outstanding athletics achievements, the Pac-12 was the first conference to reach 400 championships in 2010-11. With the inclusion of Colorado and Utah, the Conference surpassed another major milestone, with league teams capturing 450 titles, outdistancing the next conference by nearly 200. In all, Conference teams have won 451 NCAA Championships (306 men's, 145 women's).

The Conference's reputation is further proven in the annual Learfield Sports Directors' Cup competition, the prestigious award that honors the best overall collegiate athletics programs in the country. STANFORD continued its remarkable run and won its unprecedented 18th-consecutive Directors' Cup in 2011-12. For the second-straight year, six of the top 25 Division I programs were Pac-12 member institutions: No. 1 STANFORD, No. 3 UCLA, No. 7 USC, No. 11 CALIFORNIA, No. 19 ARIZONA and No. 24 OREGON. With three teams in the top 10, it was the most of any conference.

The new era of the Pac-12 Conference and 2011-12 campaign kicked off with the Conference's first-ever Pac-12 Football Championship game, pitting OREGON for the North Division and UCLA from the South Division. The Ducks won the inaugural championship game, 49-31, in front of a sold-out stadium (59,376) in Eugene, Ore.

The Conference's nine national titles came in the form of five women's and four men's crowns. Six different league schools claimed NCAA titles and, of the five NCAA institutions to have won multiples titles, three were from the Pac-12.

CALIFORNIA, STANFORD and USC each won two NCAA Championships. The Golden Bears swept the men's and women's swimming and diving crowns for the second-consecutive year; the Cardinal raised the national championship trophy for the first time ever in women's soccer and added a second-consecutive crown in women's water polo; while the Trojans won their fourth-straight men's tennis and men's water polo crowns.

Arguably the best women's volleyball conference in the country, UCLA brought home the national title, the Pac-12's first in the sport in six years. OREGON also continued its remarkable streak in women's indoor track, winning a third-straight crown. And ARIZONA won its first baseball crown in over a quarter century as it claimed the Conference's ninth of the year.

In addition to the nine national championships, the Pac-12 also had runners-up in eight NCAA Championship events: women's volleyball (USC), cross country (WASHINGTON), men's water polo (UCLA), skiing (UTAH), women's tennis (UCLA), women's track & field (OREGON), men's volleyball (USC) and women's water polo (USC). Overall, the Conference had 39 teams finish in the top four at 25 NCAA Championship events.

Participation in the postseason was a common occurrence for the Pac-12 in 2011-12. Of the 22 sports sponsored by the Conference, 14 witnessed at least half its teams participating in NCAA or other postseason action. The men sent 53 of a possible 101 teams into the postseason (52.4 percent), while the women sent 67 of a possible 113 teams (59.3 percent).

The Conference experienced continued success in football as the league sent two teams to BCS Bowl games for the second-straight year. Overall, seven teams went to bowls games. OREGON claimed its 10th Pac-12 crown in the sport, winning the Conference's first-ever Football Championship Game, and claimed a spot in the Rose Bowl. Meanwhile, STANFORD (Totitos Fiesta Bowl), ARIZONA STATE (MAACO Las Vegas Bowl), CALIFORNIA (Holiday Bowl), WASHINGTON (Valero Alamo Bowl), UTAH (Hyundai Sun Bowl) and UCLA (Kraft Fight Hunger Bowl) also earned bowl bids. Oregon and Stanford were ranked in the top-5 of the Associated Press' poll at season's end, finishing fourth and fifth, respectively.

Conference newcomer COLORADO won the Pac-12 Tournament men's basketball title and represented the league in the NCAA Tournament. Regular-season champion WASHINGTON and STANFORD headed to the NIT where the Cardinal put together an impressive run that resulted in the Pac-12's sixth-ever NIT title. The Huskies advanced to New York City, but fell in the semifinals. The Conference's 10-3 record in NIT play were the most wins ever by Pac-12 teams in the nation's oldest tournament. WASHINGTON STATE narrowly missed out on becoming the third Pac-12 team in four years to capture a postseason title in the College Basketball Invitational (CBI), advancing to the championship series before falling, two games to one.

On the women's side, two teams competed in the NCAA Tournament and five others competed in the WNIT. STANFORD made its fifth-consecutive NCAA Women's Final Four appearance after winning its sixth-straight Pac-12 Tournament crown. CALIFORNIA made a return to the postseason after a two-year absence. With COLORADO and WASHINGTON advancing the furthest in the WNIT, Pac-12 teams went 12-4 in the postseason in games against non-Conference opponents.

The Conference has dominated the volleyball field, winning a record 14 NCAA titles in the sport since 1982. UCLA captured its first NCAA title since 1991, while USC advanced to the national semifinals for the second-straight year. Seven Pac-12 teams earned postseason bids, the 12th-consecutive year the Conference has sent at least six teams to the NCAA Tournament.

ARIZONA won the Conference's 27th all-time NCAA baseball championship in 2012, becoming only the second team in NCAA history to go 10-0 in postseason play. Five Pac-12 teams received NCAA Tournament bids, with UCLA joining the Wildcats at the NCAA College World Series. In addition, OREGON and STANFORD reached the Super Regionals, and OREGON STATE also represented the Conference in the postseason event.

Without question, the Conference has dominated the softball field, winning 23 national championships in the sport since 1982, most recently capturing six in a row from 2006-11. Eight Pac-12 teams earned NCAA Tournament bids in 2012, including the No. 1-overall seed CALIFORNIA. The eight postseason teams were the most for the Conference since 2007. Cal, ARIZONA STATE and OREGON punched their tickets to the NCAA Women's College World Series, the ninth time the Conference had sent three teams to the WCWS.

The Pac-12 swept two men's and women's sports, capturing national championships in swimming & diving, and water polo. CALIFORNIA took home both swimming & diving crowns for the second-straight year. In water polo, USC was the top men's team for the fourth year in a row, while the STANFORD women repeated as national champions.

Pac-12 members have won 306 NCAA team championships on the men's side, 89 more than the next closest conference. Men's NCAA crowns have come at a phenomenal rate for the Pac-12 - 16 basketball titles by six schools (more than any other conference), 53 tennis titles, 45 outdoor track & field crowns, and 27 baseball titles. Pac-12 members have won 25 of 43 NCAA titles in volleyball, 38 of 42 in water polo, 27 in skiing, and 23 in swimming & diving national championships.

Individually, the Conference has produced an impressive number of NCAA men's individual champions, as well, boasting 2,073 individual crowns.

On the women's side, the story is much the same. Since the NCAA began conducting women's championships 31 years ago, Pac-12 members have claimed at least four national titles in a single season on 22 occasions, including the last 12-consecutive years. Overall, the Pac-12 has captured 145 NCAA women's titles, easily outdistancing the SEC, which is second, with 88. Pac-12 members have dominated a number of sports, winning 23 softball titles, 19 tennis crowns, 14 volleyball titles, 14 of the last 23 trophies in golf, and 13 in swimming & diving.

Pac-12 women student-athletes shine nationally on an individual basis, as well, having captured an unmatched 642 NCAA individual crowns, an average of nearly 21 championships per season.

PAC-12 CONFERENCE HISTORY

The roots of the Pac-12 Conference date back 97 years to December 2, 1915, when the Pacific Coast Conference (PCC) was founded at a meeting at the Oregon Hotel in Portland, Ore. The original membership consisted of four schools - the University of California at Berkeley, the University of Washington, the University of Oregon, and Oregon State College (now Oregon State University). All still are charter members of the Conference.

Pacific Coast Conference play began in 1916 and, one year later, Washington State College (now Washington State University) was accepted into the league, with Stanford University following in 1918.

In 1922, the PCC expanded to eight teams with the admission of the University of Southern California (USC) and the University of Idaho. In 1924, the University of Montana joined the league roster, and in 1928, the PCC grew to 10 members with the addition of UCLA.

The Pacific Coast Conference competed as a 10-member league until 1950, with the exception of 1943-45 when World War II curtailed intercollegiate athletic competition to a minimum. During that time, the league's first commissioner was named. Edwin N. Atherton was Commissioner in 1940 and was succeeded by Victor O. Schmidt in 1944. In 1950, Montana resigned from the Conference and joined the Mountain States Conference. The PCC continued as a nine-team Conference through 1958.

In 1959, the PCC was dissolved and the Athletic Association of Western Universities was formed and Thomas J. Hamilton was appointed Commissioner of the new league. The original AAWU membership included California, Stanford, Southern California, UCLA and Washington. Washington State joined the membership in 1962, while Oregon and Oregon State joined in 1964. Under Hamilton's watch, the name Pacific-8 Conference was adopted in 1968. In 1971, Wiles Hallock took over as Commissioner of the Pac-8.

Ten years later, on July 1, 1978, the University of Arizona and Arizona State University were admitted to the league and the Pacific-10 Conference became a reality. In 1986-87, the league took on a new look, expanding to include 10 women's sports. Since then, the Conference has been considered the premiere league in women's athletics, securing the most NCAA titles in women's sports of any conference nearly every year.

Thomas C. Hansen was named the Commissioner of the Pac-10 in 1983, a role he would hold for 26 years until 2009. Hansen was succeeded by current Commissioner Larry Scott, who took on the new role in July 2009.

During the 2010-11 academic year, Scott helped deliver monumental changes that transformed the Conference into a modern 12-team league. The Conference expanded to add two more teams, agreed to equal revenue sharing for the first time in Conference history, created two divisions - the North and the South, for football only, established a Football Championship Game for the first time ever, secured a landmark media rights deal that dramatically increased national exposure and revenue for each school and established the Pac-12 Network and Pac-12 Digital Network that guaranteed enhanced exposure across all sports.

The University of Colorado accepted its invitation to join the Pac-12 on June 11, 2010, and on June 17, 2010, the University of Utah agreed to join the Conference. The Buffaloes and Utes officially became the 11th and 12th members of the Conference July 1, 2011, the first additions to the league since 1978. During the 33 years between expansions, Conference teams claimed 258 NCAA titles, including 130 women's and 128 men's.

Currently, the Pac-12 sponsors 11 men's sports and 11 women's sports. Additionally, the Conference is a member of the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation (MPSF) in four other men's sports and three women's sports.

The Pac-12 Conference offices are located 25 miles east of San Francisco in Walnut Creek, Calif.

ASU LEGENDS

COACH FRANK KUSH

1958-1979

RECOLLECTIONS OF FRANK KUSH:

"The first three years that I was a head coach, Frank was a loyal, hard-working and intelligent assistant coach to me at Arizona State. Without his dedication and help, we never would have had the outstanding record that we had during those years. He was named my successor at the age of 29, and his record over the next two decades speaks for itself."

– Dan Devine, former Head Coach,
Arizona State, Missouri, Notre Dame and Green Bay

"I came to Arizona State on a football scholarship, and I shall always be indebted to Frank Kush for instilling toughness in his players. He was as tough as Charlie Finley and George Steinbrenner rolled into one."

– Reggie Jackson, during his Baseball
Hall of Fame induction speech

"Frank Kush was able to get out of me something that no one else could get. He affected hundreds of athletes that he coached in that same way."

– Danny White, ASU QB, 1971-73

In 1955, Hall of Fame coach Dan Devine hired Frank Kush as one of his assistants at Arizona State. It was his first coaching job. Just three years later, Kush succeeded Devine as head coach. On December 12, 1995 he joined his mentor and friend in the College Football Hall of Fame.

Before he went on to become a top coach, Frank Kush was an outstanding player. He was a guard, playing both ways for Clarence "Biggie" Munn at Michigan State. He was small for a guard; 5-9, 175, but he played big. State went 26-1 during Kush's college days and in 1952 he was named to the Look Magazine All-America team. His alma mater has inducted Kush into the Michigan State Hall of Fame and presented him with the Duffy Daugherty Memorial Award for outstanding contributions to college football.

As a coach, Kush ranks among the all-time winningest coaches with a 176-54-1 record (.764).

In his 22 years at the helm of Arizona State, Kush had 19 winning seasons, won nine conference championships and ran up a 6-1 bowl record.

He had undefeated teams in 1970 and 1975. He was named Coach of the Year in 1975 by the American Football Coaches Association of the Walter Camp Foundation and his team was ranked number two nationally by AP and UPI. He had unbeaten and untied winning streaks of 21, 13 and 12 (twice) at Arizona State.

Kush himself served as a head coach in pro football. He coached the CFL Hamilton Tiger-Cats to an Eastern Conference first-place finish and spent three seasons with the Baltimore Colts before moving back to Arizona to coach the USFL Phoenix team.

After the USFL folded, Kush stayed in Arizona and became active in public relations and community work. In the summer of 2000, Kush returned to ASU as a special assistant to the athletics director. His duties include strengthening ties with former ASU student-athletes and alumni, working as an ambassador for the athletic department and assisting with special projects.

One of college football's legendary coaches, Frank Kush became Arizona State University's 15th head football coach on December 22, 1957. In the 22 seasons that followed, Kush brought unmatched success to the Sun Devil football program and unrivaled national prominence to Arizona State University. The following is a listing of some of the facts and figures which trace the Kush legend.

- The field at Sun Devil Stadium was renamed in honor of Coach Kush.
- The 1996 football season was dedicated to celebrating ASU's athletic tradition and the September 21 Nebraska game was designated "Frank Kush Day" at Sun Devil Stadium. All former Kush players were invited to participate in a spectacular halftime celebration that included the rededication of the field with the unveiling of the Kush nameplate by then ASU President Lattie Coor.
- Kush is ASU's coaching leader in years served (22), games coached (231) and wins (176). He is second in winning percentage (.764), trailing his predecessor, Dan Devine (.887) who went 27-3-1 over a three year career.
- Nineteen of Kush's teams posted winning season records, 18 of which won at least seven games, 12 of which won at least eight, eight of which won at least nine, and six of which won 10 or more games in a season.
- Seven of Kush's teams played in bowl games, posting a 6-1 won-loss record.
- Kush coached two of ASU's most important games -- the 1970 Peach Bowl and the 1975 Fiesta Bowl. In 1970, the Sun Devils received their first postseason bowl invitation in 19 years, and completed a 12-0 season with a 48-26 victory over North Carolina. Local sports historians point to that game as the introduction of Arizona State football to the national scene. Five years later, the Sun Devils again capped an undefeated season by downing Nebraska, 17-14. The win gave ASU a No. 2 national ranking for the year, and ushered ASU into the elite of college football programs.
- The success of Arizona State University football under Frank Kush led to increased exposure for the university through national and regional television appearances. Evidence of this can be traced to the fact that Arizona State's enrollment increased from 10,000 in 1958 (Kush's first season) to 37,122 in 1979 (Kush's final season), an increase of over 300%.
- One hundred twenty-eight ASU football student-athletes coached by Kush were drafted by teams in the National, American and World Football Leagues. Kush-coached players have 17 combined NFL Pro Bowl appearances. Ten Kush-coached players were first-round NFL and AFL draft selections.
- Twenty-two members of the Arizona State University football program from 1958 through 1979 are members of the Arizona State University Sports Hall of Fame. Kush is a member of the Hall of Distinction, which honors former ASU athletic administrators and coaches.
- The success of the Sun Devil football program under Kush led to the expansion of Sun Devil Stadium to accommodate increased local interest. In 1969, the stadium was expanded from its original seating capacity of 35,000 to 50,000. In 1976, a two-year expansion project brought capacity to 70,021.
- Arizona State University's football success under Kush led to the move of the school's athletic program to the Pacific-10 Conference in 1978. Conference officials had been offered the opportunity to take the University of Arizona, but would only accept the idea if Arizona State was included. By joining, Arizona State University not only enjoyed increased attention for its athletic programs, but additional national prestige for its campus as well.
- In 21 meetings with the University of Arizona, Kush-coached teams won 16 games, including a streak of nine consecutive wins from 1965 through 1973.
- Thirty-eight Kush-coached student-athletes were honored as All-Americans.

COACH DAN DEVINE

1955-57

Dan Devine, a football coaching legend at Arizona State, Missouri and Notre Dame, began his head coaching career at ASU, where he was hired in 1955 at the age of 31. In his inaugural season, the Sun Devils accomplished a record of 8-2-1. While a magnificent debut, incredibly the .772 winning percentage would be Devine's worst as the Sun Devil coach.

In 1956, ASU improved to 9-1, suffering its only defeat to UTEP by a score of 28-0. Save that loss, the Sun Devils never scored fewer than 19 points that season, while allowing only two other teams into double-figures.

The following season (1957), Devine's Sun Devils recorded the first perfect season and national ranking in ASU history, finishing 10-0 in a year that included four shutouts (Devine's Sun Devils had nine in his career) and only one game decided by fewer than double-digits (35-26 win over Hardin-Simmons).

After the 1957 season, Devine packed up his 27-3-1 (.887) record and moved on to Missouri where he would remain until 1970. At ASU, Devine was replaced by Frank Kush, who, just three years after receiving his first coaching opportunity from Devine, began what would be 22 memorable seasons at the helm of Sun Devil football.

Despite his accomplishments at ASU, Devine's 13 seasons with the Tigers of Missouri were altogether finer. Going 93-37-7 (.700) over that span, Missouri never lost more than three games in a single season while accumulating victories in the 1961 Orange Bowl, the 1963 Bluebonnet Bowl, the 1966 Sugar Bowl and the 1969 Gator Bowl.

After his term at Missouri, Devine enjoyed a stay at the professional ranks, serving as head coach and general manager of the Green Bay Packers from 1971-1974. Of those seasons, the Packers' finest was 1972, when they tallied a 10-4 record en route to the Central Division title and Coach of the Year honors for Devine from Pro Football Writers and UPI.

Devine returned to the collegiate ranks in 1975, enjoying his final coaching years at Notre Dame. Called upon to replace Hall of Fame coach Ara Parseghian, the Fighting Irish went 53-6-1 (.890) over Devine's five seasons. Most memorable was the 1977 team (11-1), which knocked off previously undefeated Texas 38-10 to earn a national championship at the Cotton Bowl.

After resigning from coaching duty in 1980, Devine made his return to ASU as the executive director of the Sun Angel Foundation where he remained for seven years. In 1987 he left the Sun Angels, but not the university, accepting a position to direct an upstart ASU program designed to combat substance abuse.

Devine returned to yet another of his former schools in 1992, when he succeeded Dick Tamburo as the athletic director at Missouri, a position he would entertain until his retirement at the conclusion of the 1993-94 academic year.

Devine, born December 23, 1924, and a native of Augusta, Wis., was elected into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1985 and the ASU Hall of Distinction in 1987. He earned a master's degree in guidance and counseling from Michigan State University and a bachelor's degree in history from the University of Minnesota Duluth in 1948.

Devine passed away at the age of 77 on May 9, 2002 after a long illness.

William (Bill) "Kaji" Kajikawa, who began his coaching career at Arizona State University in 1937 and retired from ASU in 1978, was recognized April 6, 1995 in a ceremony that named the Sun Devil football practice field The Bill Kajikawa Practice Facility, in his honor.

The ceremony included speeches from former University President Dr. Lattie F. Coor, then Director of Athletics Charles S. Harris and football coaching legend Frank Kush. It was followed by an invitation-only dinner. Then head coach Bruce Snyder and the entire Sun Devil team attended the ceremony and dinner.

Kajikawa, professor emeritus of physical education, began coaching the Arizona State Teacher's College freshman football team in 1937, when the players were known as the Bulldogs. During his tenure, Kajikawa watched the Bulldogs become the Sun Devils in 1946, and he saw his alma mater gain university status in 1958.

Kajikawa received his bachelor's and master's degrees in education from ASU in 1937 and 1948, respectively. As an undergraduate, he played on the college's varsity football team.

During World War II, Kajikawa took his only hiatus from ASU to serve with distinction in the Army's 442nd Regimental Combat Team. The 442nd, manned entirely by Japanese Americans, was the Army's most decorated combat unit.

Before retiring in 1978, Kajikawa had worked as the freshman football coach under nine ASU head football coaches. In addition, he served as head basketball coach from 1948 to 1957, and he was head baseball coach during the infancy of the ASU baseball program from 1947 to 1957. He was inducted into the Arizona Basketball Hall of Fame in 1968 and the ASU Hall of Distinction in 1982.

Kajikawa devoted countless hours to community service. For his work, the American Legion selected him in 1976 for the Americanism Award for service to young people.

He and his late wife, Margaret Kajikawa, were honored with numerous community appreciation awards, including the Dorothy Mitchell Humanitarian Award from Tri-City Catholic Social Service and the Don Carlos Award from the Tempe Community Council. Also, they received the Award of Excellence from the ASU Alumni Association. His daughter, Dr. Christine K. Wilkinson, served as the Interim Director of Athletics at ASU in 1995-96 and again in 2000. She is currently Senior Vice President and Secretary at ASU.

Kajikawa received an honorary doctor of law degree during the summer 1989 commencement ceremony from ASU.

Kajikawa passed away at the age of 97 on February 15, 2010.

COACH JOHN COOPER

1985-87

One of the finest head coaches of his time, John Cooper came to ASU after eight excellent seasons guiding the University of Tulsa. While coaching the Sun Devils, Cooper joined school icon Frank Kush as the only coaches at ASU since World War II to anchor three straight winning seasons to begin their ASU careers, while also leading ASU to postseason bowl berths all three years, at the time the second-longest postseason streak in Sun Devil history.

Cooper's most memorable season at the helm for the Sun Devils came in 1986, as ASU captured its first Pac-10 Championship and the school's debut appearance in the famed Rose Bowl game, in which the Sun Devils defeated the University of Michigan, 22-15, capping off a 10-1-1 season and a No. 4 ranking by the Associated Press, which remains tied for the second-highest end of season ranking in ASU history.

During his tenure in Tempe, Cooper compiled an overall record of 25-9-2, with a 2-1 postseason record, also defeating Air Force, 33-28, in the 1987 Freedom Bowl in Anaheim, Calif.

Cooper mentored three consensus All-Americans in safety David Fulcher and offensive linemen Danny Villa and fellow 2008 Hall of Fame inductee Randall McDaniel, while sending 18 total draft selections to the National Football League. Fulcher also is on the current ballot for selection into the College Football Hall of Fame.

Following his coaching career at ASU, Cooper, now 70, went on to guide the Ohio State Buckeyes from 1988-2000 and retired with a career coaching record of 192-84-6.

Bruce Snyder, a two-time Pac-10 Coach of the Year and 1996 consensus National Coach-of-the-Year, was at the helm for one of the most dominating and storied seasons in Sun Devil football history.

The 1996 campaign featured the fourth undefeated regular season (11-0) in ASU history, as well as the school's second Pac-10 title and Rose Bowl appearance. He produced one of the biggest upsets in college football history in the first game of that season when the Sun Devils shutout the top-ranked and two-time defending national champion Nebraska Cornhuskers 19-0 in Sun Devil Stadium. ASU finished the year ranked No. 4 in both of the major polls after the Sun Devils lost to Ohio State in the Rose Bowl (20-17) on a last-minute Buckeye touchdown. Snyder won 13 major coach-of-the-year awards for his efforts, including the Paul 'Bear' Bryant Award.

Snyder compiled a 58-45 record (.563) in nine seasons (1992-2000) at ASU and his win total trails only Frank Kush's 176 victories in ASU annals. The 1997 season included a 9-3 record and a 17-7 victory over Iowa in the Sun Bowl. He guided ASU to victories over Washington, USC, UCLA and Arizona in 1996 and 1999, the only two years in ASU history the Sun Devils have accomplished that feat.

While at ASU, 18 different players earned All-America honors, including offensive tackle Juan Roque, who was a consensus All-American in 1996. Snyder's players produced more than 100 All-Pac-10 honors, including one Offensive Player of the Year (Jake Plummer in 1996), two Defensive Players of the Year (Pat Tillman in 1997 and Adam Archuleta in 2000) and one Freshman of the Year (Terrell Suggs in 2000). Plummer was also a 1996 Heisman Trophy finalist. In addition, more than 40 players who Snyder coached at ASU were drafted into the NFL, including seven first-round draft choices. In addition, more than 40 other players who played for Snyder at ASU signed rookie free agent contracts.

Prior to arriving at ASU, Snyder was the head coach at Cal and guided the Golden Bears to a 29-24-4 record over a five-year stretch. He was named the 1990 Pac-10 Coach of the Year after leading Cal to a 7-4-1 record and only its second bowl game since 1958 season. In his final year at Cal, Snyder directed the Golden Bears to a 10-2 record, No. 8 national ranking and a win over ACC Champion Clemson in the Citrus Bowl.

His first head coaching job was at Utah State, where he led the Aggies to a 39-37-1 record and a pair of conference championships during his seven-year stint as head coach (1976-1982).

His career coaching record stands at 126-106-5 in 20 seasons (.542) and he was a member of the Pat Tillman Foundation Board of Directors following his retirement.

Snyder passed away at the age of 69 on April 13, 2009.

HALL of

JOHN HENRY JOHNSON, RUNNING BACK, 1952

Sun Devil John Henry Johnson was inducted into the NFL Hall of Fame in 1987 with such legends as Joe Greene, Gene Upshaw and Larry Csonka. He rushed for 6,577 yards and 48 touchdowns during a 13-year NFL career spent with the San Francisco 49ers, Pittsburgh Steelers and Houston Oilers. He rushed for more than 1,000 yards in both 1962 and 1964 with the Steelers, and was the leading rusher with the 1957 NFL champion Detroit Lions. He was an All-Pro pick four times.

Johnson, an ASU Hall of Fame inductee, had 106 yards on seven carries and scored three touchdowns the first game he played in as a Sun Devil in 1952 against Hardin Simmons and went on to earn All-Border Conference honors that year.

He began his NFL career as a 1953 second-round draft pick of the Steelers and went on to become the first Steeler ever to gain 1,000 rushing yards in a season.

CHARLEY TAYLOR, WIDE RECEIVER, 1961-63

Charley Taylor was inducted into the NFL Hall of Fame in 1984 and also is a charter member of the ASU Hall of Fame with his induction in 1975. A 1964 first-round pick of the Washington Redskins (NFL) and a second-round pick of the Houston Oilers (AFL), Taylor earned All-Western Athletic Conference honors in 1963 (first-team) and 1962 (second-team).

He earned Coaches All-America honors in 1964 and was Most Valuable Player of the 1964 Chicago Tribune All-Star Game, which had collegiate all-stars taking on professionals. He also played in the East-West Shrine game and the Hula Bowl that year. Taylor led ASU in punt and kickoff returns in 1961 and 1963 and led the Sun Devils in scoring in 1962.

Taylor caught 649 passes for 9,140 yards and had 79 touchdowns in his 13-year NFL career. He also rushed for 1,488 yards and 11 touchdowns. An eight-time selection to the Pro Bowl, he retired following the 1977 season. Taylor was born Sept. 28, 1941, in Grand Prairie, Texas. When he retired, he was the NFL's all-time leading receiver.

RON PRITCHARD, LINEBACKER, 1966-68

Arizona State's fourth inductee to the College Football Hall of Fame (2003), Ron Pritchard is arguably the greatest linebacker in the history of the ASU football program. Pritchard, Arizona State's first consensus All-American, led the Sun Devils to a pair of eight-win seasons.

A first-team All-American in 1968, Pritchard was elected team captain, voted Most Valuable Defensive Player by his peers and led the Sun Devils in tackles and interceptions that year. A three-time first-team All-Western Athletic Conference pick, Pritchard was selected to the 20-Year WAC All-Star Football Team. Following his senior season, he played in the East-West Shrine Game, the Coaches All-American Game, the Hula Bowl and the Senior Bowl.

After his legendary collegiate career, Pritchard was selected 15th overall in the first round of the 1969 NFL draft by the Houston Oilers. His professional career ended prematurely after nine years with the Oilers and Cincinnati Bengals due to a knee injury.

DANNY WHITE, QUARTERBACK, 1970-73

On January 30, 1997, former ASU quarterback Danny White became the first Arizona State University player to be elected into the College Football Hall of Fame.

White still ranks at or near the top of most career passing categories at ASU including touchdown passes, passing yards and attempts. Ironically, White was in the broadcast booth as a Fox commentator when Jake Plummer tied his touchdown record at Arizona in 1996.

White was a first-team All-America selection in 1973, a year in which he guided the Sun Devils to an 11-1 record and a win over Pittsburgh in the Fiesta Bowl. White finished ninth in the Heisman Trophy balloting that December. He was an all-Western Athletic Conference selection and ASU's Most Valuable Player that season as a senior.

In White's three seasons, the Sun Devils ran up a record of 32-4 with three Fiesta Bowl wins. ASU was 21-1 at Sun Devil Stadium. He led the team in total offense all three seasons. White played in the East-West Shrine Game, Hula Bowl and Senior Bowl, before the Dallas Cowboys selected him with their third-round pick in the 1974 NFL Draft. He played for Memphis of the World Football League for two seasons before joining the Cowboys in 1976. Dallas beat Denver in Super Bowl XII the following season. In all, White played 13 seasons for the Cowboys as a quarterback and punter.

White was chosen by Sports Illustrated magazine as the second-best quarterback in the history of football. His #11 jersey has been retired by Arizona State.

FAME

MIKE HAYNES, CORNERBACK, 1972-75

In 1997, former Sun Devil defensive back Mike Haynes became the third ASU player elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. He joined John Henry Johnson and Charley Taylor in the Hall. He became the second ASU player inducted into College Football's Hall of Fame December of 2001.

Haynes, the fifth overall selection by the New England Patriots in the 1976 NFL Draft, was selected to play in nine Pro Bowls, the second most by an ASU player. He was also a member of the Raiders Super Bowl XV and XVIII championship squads.

In his four seasons on the collegiate gridiron, Haynes was a two-time All-America and three-time All-Western Athletic Conference selection. He led the nation by picking off 11 passes his junior year, second-best all-time at ASU. In 1975, Haynes' senior season, ASU enjoyed its most successful season in school history, going 12-0 and finishing second in the wire service polls.

Haynes snared 17 career interceptions, also second-best all-time at ASU. In addition, he was an exceptional kick returner, fielding a school-record 46 punts in 1974 and scoring twice off punt returns in 1975.

In March of 2002, Haynes was named the National Football League's Vice President of Player and Employee Development.

JOHN JEFFERSON, WIDE RECEIVER, 1974-77

ASU's third inductee to the College Football Hall of Fame, John Jefferson still holds many school records after an illustrious career as the ASU's main receiving threat. He remains ASU's all-time career leader in receptions (188), yards (2,993), consecutive games with a reception (44) and freshman receiving yards (423).

A 1977 consensus All-American pick, Jefferson also earned honorable mention All-America honors in 1975 and was recognized as a two-time first-team All-WAC selection and a two-time WAC honorable mention selection in his four-year career. He was voted ASU's most valuable player in both 1975 and 1977, while following his senior year, he played in the Japan and Hula Bowls.

Jefferson is best known for "The Catch," widely regarded as the most memorable play in ASU football history. Against Arizona in 1975 with a Fiesta Bowl berth on the line, Jefferson made a fantastic diving grab for a touchdown just before halftime to close the game to within four points. The Sun Devils won that game and the Fiesta Bowl to finish the year undefeated and ranked No. 2 nationally, the best finish ever for ASU football.

In the 1978 NFL Draft, Jefferson was a first-round selection of the San Diego Chargers and subsequently played for the Green Bay Packers and the Cleveland Browns in his nine-year NFL career. He became the first player in NFL history to gain 1,000 yards receiving in each of his first three years in the league, a feat that has been repeated only once. Jefferson led the league in receiving yards in 1980 with 1,340 and also had a league-best 13 touchdown receptions. In the 1983 Pro Bowl, he was voted as co-MVP with Dan Fouts.

RANDALL MCDANIEL, OFFENSIVE LINEMAN, 1984-87

Widely considered one of the greatest offensive linemen to ever play for the Sun Devils, McDaniel lettered at ASU from 1984-87. During his career, the Phoenix native earned first-team All-Pacific-10 Conference honors at offensive guard in 1986 and 1987, and as a senior he became only the 10th player in school history to earn consensus All-America honors.

An integral component in ASU's 1986 Pac-10 Conference Champion squad, McDaniel also earned honorable mention All-America honors as a junior by the Associated Press and Kodak, helping lead the Sun Devils to ASU's first ever Rose Bowl victory, 22-15 over the University of Michigan.

In 1989, McDaniel was elected in Arizona State University's Athletics Hall of Fame.

McDaniel's football excellence continued after his collegiate career concluded, as he was selected 19th overall by the Minnesota Vikings in the 1988 NFL Draft. He would go on to enjoy a stellar 14-year career with both Minnesota and the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, earning an NFL record 12 Pro Bowl invitations (1989-2000), while also receiving NFL All-Pro recognition nine consecutive times (1990-98) and was named to the NFL's All-Decade Team of the 1990s, as determined by voters of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

A starter in 202 consecutive games to end his career while missing only two games as a professional, McDaniel retired from the NFL after the 2001 season. His ASU degree is a B.S. in Physical Education. In addition to his induction into the College Football Hall of Fame, McDaniel is a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame (Class of 2009).

TOP PICKS

Arizona State football student-athletes have enjoyed tremendous success in the first round of the annual NFL draft. In 2003, defensive end Terrell Suggs became the 25th Sun Devil to be taken in the first round of the AFL or NFL draft. Arizona State was one of just three schools in the nation to have a first-round draft pick in 2000-03 (Miami and Florida). Here is a complete listing of Arizona State's first round draft selections in the order by which they were picked:

One of the most aesthetic and beautiful collegiate stadiums in the nation, Arizona State's Sun Devil Stadium has played host to some of the best football games for more than five decades.

It has hosted Arizona State University football games since 1958, including the game on Sept. 21, 1996, when the playing surface was named Frank Kush Field as ASU upset top-ranked Nebraska 19-0. It has hosted four national championships – Notre Dame vs. West Virginia in 1988, Nebraska vs. Florida in 1996, Tennessee vs. Florida State in 1999 and Ohio State vs. Miami in 2003. And it played host to the NFL's ultimate showcase – the 1996 Super Bowl where the Dallas Cowboys pulled out a close win over the Pittsburgh Steelers.

The stadium, a favorite of television production crews, was the home of the Tostito's Fiesta Bowl for 35 years and the NFL's Arizona Cardinals for 18 seasons. Beginning in 2006, Sun Devil Stadium became the new home of the Insight Bowl.

The facility, regarded as one of the nation's outstanding collegiate football facilities, also boasts a spectacular, second-to-none setting. Constructed between two mountain buttes, the stadium literally was carved from the desert, and occupies a space between the Tempe buttes – actually small mountains that ideally have accommodated the growth of the structure. Sun Devil Stadium addresses Phoenix to the west and the south end zone (formerly the open end) points to scenic Tempe, home of Arizona State University.

SUN DEVIL

Originally erected in 1958 (capacity 30,000), the stadium has been expanded three times (1976-78, 1988, and 1992) with additions. Sun Devil Stadium now boasts a capacity of 71,706.

Arizona State has led the Pacific-12 Conference in average attendance seven times (1986, '85, '84, '83, '82, '80 and '79) since joining the league in 1978. ASU finished second six times and third twice. In 2007, the Sun Devils drew a home total of 503,003 fans.

In 1987, the stadium was filled beyond capacity for the Papal visit, one of the few sites to play host to the Pope's tour of the United States. On April 4, 1976, the New York Cosmos (with Pelé) and the Los Angeles Aztecs played an exhibition soccer game in front of 15,000 fans in the stadium. In 2008, the New England Patriots used the stadium as their practice facility in preparation for Super Bowl XLII. And in May 2009, President Barack Obama spoke at ASU's commencement ceremonies in front of a crowd of more than 70,000 people, the largest U.S. audience for Obama since his inauguration.

The field facelift, along with the 165,000-square-foot Carson Student Athlete Center and the three-story, 60,000-square-foot press box and skybox additions, makes Arizona State's Sun Devil Stadium one of the true showcases of college football.

The press box and skybox facility, which sits atop the upper deck on the west side, contains two 30-suite levels of skyboxes renovated in 1999 and is topped by an ultra-modern press box and eight additional private suites. The facility also boasts its own television production room, complete with editing and chyron capabilities and camera equipment. The equipment is manned by a full crew on game day to give spectators live and replay views of the contest.

Served by four industrial-sized elevators – one for the media and three for the public – the facility has working space for more than 200 sportswriters, booth space for broadcasters, statistical crews, scoreboard operations and a rooftop camera deck in addition to suite seating for more than 900 fans.

The bowl (south) end is connected by the dramatic Sun Devil Athletics Complex and the extension of the loge-level seats. Locker rooms also were added in the north end visiting teams. Two new scoreboards were put in place in 1999. The color video replay system, situated in the southeast corner, offers fans instant replays of game action. The original video screen was the first of its kind in an on-campus football stadium. A complementary matrix board for messages and statistical information sits in the southwest corner. Located in the south end of Sun Devil Stadium, the $28 million, 165,000-square-foot Carson Student Athlete Center houses all of ASU's 21 varsity sport coaches, as well as athletic administration.

With the completion of the complex in 1988 and the additions in 2002, the athletic department was centralized in one facility for the first time. The goal was to have the entire department together to improve communication and operations between coaches and administrators.

THE TERRITORIAL CUP - DUEL IN THE DESERT

Thanks to a historic find in a church basement several years ago, Arizona State University and the University of Arizona can now claim the oldest intercollegiate rivalry trophy in the nation. The Territorial Championship Cup, which has been registered with the NCAA, was first presented to Tempe Normal School (now ASU) on Nov. 30, 1899 following an 11-2 victory over the University of Arizona at Tucson's Carillo Gardens Field. The priceless Territorial Cup was lost for a time and was discovered several years ago in the basement of a church that was being demolished. According to the NCAA, the previous oldest trophy was the Michigan/Minnesota Little Brown Jug, which dates back to 1909.

The Territorial Cup has been catalogued and is available for public viewing in the reading room of ASU's Hayden Library. A replica of the cup will be displayed on the field at each year's Arizona-Arizona State football game, and the winning team in one of the nation's oldest and fiercest rivalries will be awarded the actual trophy to display in its Hall of Fame each year.

In addition to the Territorial Cup, there is an abundance of hardware handed out at each year's game. The Big Game Trophy, a sculpture by artist Ben Goo, which was the prize in the rivalry game from 1979 to 1997, is awarded to the game MVP to be displayed in the school's Hall of Fame. The award is now called the Bob Moran MVP Award, named after longtime East Valley Tribune sports reporter Bob Moran, who covered both schools as a beat writer and columnist in his long and distinguished career. Also, the Saguaro Trophy, a bronze sculpture by artist Dora Perry, which served as the reward starting in 1998, is given to the coach of the winning team to display in his office for the year.

This season, the annual Territorial Cup series game got a bit more intriguing with the hirings of first-year ASU head coach Todd Graham at ASU and new Arizona Coach Rich Rodriguez. The new face in Tucson is no stranger to Graham. In 2001 Rodriguez hired Graham as his linebackers coach at West Virginia and the following year Graham was promoted to co-defensive coordinator.

Arizona State has had a strong hold on the rivalry over the past 10 years, winning six out of the last 10 contests, including rallying from an 11-point deficit in the fourth quarter in 2010 in Tucson. ASU blocked extra-point attempts at the end of regulation and the second overtime period to come away with an improbable 30-29 win.

This year's game closes out the regular season on Friday, November 23 at Arizona.

OUTLOOK

CB OSAHON IRABOR

Introduced as ASU's head football coach on Dec. 14, 2011, Todd Graham began his passionate mission to again bring Sun Devil football to national prominence—and to do so in a fashion that at all times maintains unequalled levels of discipline, character and integrity.

Graham brings an exciting combination of enthusiasm and experience, as his previous six years as an FBS head coach have been highlighted by record-setting, nationally elite efforts on both offense and defense. Coach Graham has quickly established himself as a winner and a disciplinarian and has been one of college football's fastest-rising head coaches since his debut season at Rice in 2006.

A “throw back” type of coach with tremendously high expectations for his staff and student-athletes, Graham has tirelessly worked to not only heighten the quality of performances by the Sun Devils on and off the football field, but also to engage the local community with Sun Devil Athletics and to reignite the passion and pride felt for Arizona State University. Graham's ideals and philosophies bring to mind several similarities to the historical standards set at Arizona State during the Sun Devils' most consistently prominent days under legendary Hall of Fame head coach Frank Kush.

On the football field under Coach Graham, the phrase “high octane” isn't just measured in statistics or highlights. It became immediately tangible at the start of spring drills when, from day one, the tempo, intensity and urgency of each practice raised to levels not seen at ASU in quite some time.

In Graham's debut season at ASU, the Sun Devils can be expected to play with intensity, character and discipline and emulate the high-standards and values of their head coach.

ASU's offense is paced by returning 1,000-yard rusher Cameron Marshall as well as dynamic all-purpose threat Jamal Miles and starting offensive linemen Evan Finkenberg and Andrew Sampson. The Sun Devil defense is highlighted by linebacker Brandon Magee, defensive lineman Will Sutton and defensive backs Deveron Carr, Alden Darby and Osahton Irabor.

On special teams, ASU returns kicker Alex Garoutte and punter Josh Hubner from 2011, while the outstanding group of Jamal Miles, Rashad Ross and Kyle Middlebrooks returns to form one of college football's most exciting kick return units.

OFFENSE

Throughout his career as an FBS level head coach, Coach Graham has earned a steady reputation as a facilitator of offensive excellence, as past teams he's mentored have ranked among the nation's most prominent offenses on multiple occasions.

While the head coach at Tulsa, Graham twice lead the nation in total offense and on a third occasion ranked fifth overall in the country, while also placing second in the nation in scoring offense in 2008, which occurred after his team set four NCAA records in 2007.

In 2011, ASU ranked second in the Pac-12 Conference in total passing yards with a school record of 4,117 yards, while running back Cameron Marshall tied the single-season rushing touchdowns mark and became only the second Sun Devil rusher in a decade to surpass 1,000 yards on the ground, giving Graham plenty of offensive artillery to work with.

This year, ASU will take advantage of diverse skills at quarterback, while also heavily relying on its dynamic and talented depth at running back. At wide receiver and tight end, the Sun Devils will call upon a stable of eager and capable players and the offensive line adds a mixture of returning starters and highly-qualified linemen that have earned the right to join the first-string line.

QUARTERBACK

With the departure of record-setting quarterback Brock Osweiler to the NFL, the spring featured a three-man competition for the right to start at quarterback which featured a trio of youngsters, each bringing a unique skill set to the offense.

Redshirt sophomore Taylor Kelly, sophomore Mike Bercovici and redshirt freshman Michael Eubank generally received equal repetitions during spring practice as each of the three has worked to earn the first-string nod. Between the three, ASU collectively has a group fully capable to be highly effective in the short, intermediate and deep passing game while also bringing excellent pocket mobility, field awareness and downfield running abilities as well.

Entering his third year in the program, Kelly brings the greatest amount of team experience to the quarterback competition as he served as a primary reserve behind Osweiler last season after redshirting in 2010. Kelly's strongest attributes are his mobility and accuracy—both in and out of the pocket. The Idaho native is able to complete challenging passes on the run and has shown to be clearly capable of escaping the pocket and gaining yardage with his feet. Last season, Kelly saw action in two games behind Osweiler, during which he showcased both his passing and running skills.

The Gatorade State Player of the Year in Idaho as the state's top football player in 2009, Kelly led Eagle High School to a state championship after passing for over 2,500 yards while rushing for over 1,000 more as a senior.

Bercovici graduated high school early and enrolled at ASU last January to participate in spring drills, which proved to be a major benefit to his development as he bypassed a redshirt season in favor of earning playing time as a true freshman.

Widely considered to have the strongest arm of ASU's quarterbacks, Bercovici has frequently shown his ability to make impressive downfield throws and has also displayed marked developments with his pocket mobility. Last season, Bercovici earned playing time in two games, giving him valuable early playing experience to assist him in his quest to start as a sophomore in 2012.

As a high school senior at Woodland Hills (Calif.) Taft High School, Bercovici was rated by Rivals.com as the No. 14 pro-style quarterback in the country after passing for 3,755 yards with 37 touchdowns and only seven interceptions.

One of the most physically intriguing players on the roster, Eubank arrived in Tempe this past fall by way of Corona (Calif.) Centennial High School with high expectations as he was the most highly-rated prospect in the Sun Devils' 2011 recruiting class. Rated by Scout.com as the No. 18 quarterback recruit in the country, Eubank was one of the nation's hottest prospects during the 2010 season after passing for 2,831 yards with 22 touchdowns and only three interceptions while adding 1,329 rushing yards with 19 scores.

While redshirting in 2011, Eubank guided the scout team and showed the physical requirements and leadership qualities to be a star collegian. This spring, Eubank has seen substantial playing time and on several occasions has exhibited his incredible athleticism as a threatening runner as well to complement his impressive attributes in the passing game. By far the biggest of ASU's quarterbacks, Eubank is possibly also the most athletically gifted, giving him high potential for his Sun Devil career.

Danny Lewis, a walk-on redshirt freshman, has also earned practice reps behind Kelly, Bercovici and Eubank.

RUNNING BACK

Though the Devils will usher in a new starting quarterback, ASU has the experience, depth and talent to routinely draw upon the collective skills of its dynamic and deep stable of running backs.

Atop the depth chart stands senior Cameron Marshall, one of the Pac-12 Conference's most accomplished running backs and one of the most underrated rushers on a national level.

Combining remarkable straight-line speed and raw power, Marshall has shown praiseworthy resilience and toughness as well; missing only one game through three years and starting 22 of 36 total career contests and is the Pac-12 Conference's active career leader in rushing touchdowns (29).

Marshall has progressed remarkably through three years at ASU, beginning as a contributing true freshman in 2009 then becoming a full-time starter as a sophomore. After surpassing over 1,000 all-purpose yards with 10 total touchdowns in 2010, Marshall exploded as a junior by tying ASU's single-season rushing touchdowns record of 18 set by Terry Battle in 1996. He accomplished this while nursing an ankle injury all season. Also, Marshall ranks among college football's most prolific end zone residents as only three FBS players returning in 2012 had more rushing touchdowns in 2011. Not simply a goal line threat, Marshall collected 1,050 rushing yards making him only the second 1,000-yard rusher at ASU in 10 seasons. In all, the San Jose, Calif., native has carried 444 times for 2,131 yards while also providing capability as a receiver out of the backfield, having totaled 31 career receptions for 271 yards.

With his final college season on the horizon, Marshall has cemented himself in Sun Devil lore as he currently ranks 12th on ASU's all-time rushing yardage list and could feasibly become only the fifth Sun Devil runner in school history to surpass 3,000 career rushing yards.

Marshall participated in the early sessions of the spring to acclimate to Coach Graham's offense but underwent ankle surgery shortly thereafter and sat out the bulk of spring drills.

After missing the 2011 season while rehabbing from an injury last February, Deantre Lewis made his return to the football field this spring to again prove his potential to be a nationally prominent running back. In 2010, Lewis made an immediate impact for the Sun Devils, posting one of the school's most memorable rushing seasons by a true freshman as he totaled 539 rushing yards and 370 receiving yards with six total scores. The author of three 100-yard rushing games and two 100-yard receiving games, Lewis proved to be a homerun candidate every time he touched the ball. In the spring, Lewis has shown physical progress and continues to work to be on schedule to reenter the rushing rotation in the fall.

Junior Kyle Middlebrooks and senior James Morrison entered the spring both with a sense of urgency and made excellent contributions, earning high praise from Coach Graham and his staff.

Middlebrooks, one of the team's fastest players and a high-profile returns specialist, unfortunately had his spring cut short due to injury, but impressed the coaching staff with his speed and versatility during his time on the field. A dual-threat performer, Middlebrooks excels as a rusher and receiver and has the skill set to be a multi-dimensional threat in 2012.

The team's longest-tenured running back on the roster, Morrison enters his fifth year as a Sun Devil and if his spring performances are an indication of what is to come during his senior season it could be a special one. One of the team's most impressive performers on either side of the ball this spring, Morrison has consistently shown his ability to powerfully carry the ball between the tackles and gain tough yardage. The Phoenix native has seen action on special teams and at running back during his three years in Tempe and is jockeying for even more significant playing time as he concludes his college career.

Walk-on R.J. Robinson of Glendale, Ariz., has been a gritty contributor in practices and games during the first half of his Sun Devil career. A participant in every game last year on special teams as well as a reserve running back, Robinson's dedication has enabled him to remain in the rotation for playing time.

Redshirt freshman Danny Clark, a walk-on from nearby Scottsdale Saguaro High School, adds depth in the backfield and has been used in a fullback role.

As dynamic as the Sun Devil running backs can be with the players returning from last year, the position group's overall talent level figures to escalate in the fall with the arrival of three highly talented backs.

In fact, the incoming Sun Devil rushers collectively rank place ASU among the country's elite as Scout.com ranks the Devils' 2012 group of running back signees as the 10th best in the nation and the best stable at the position in the Pac-12 Conference.

The headliner of Arizona State's 2012 signing class is local high school legend D.J. Foster of Scottsdale Saguaro High School, who in 2011 submitted one of the greatest individual efforts in Arizona high school football history. Last season, Foster set multiple Arizona records including total touchdowns in a season (60), rushing yards in a game (508) and touchdowns in a game (10) as parts of his 3,058 total rushing yards. Also an accomplished receiver and defensive back while at Saguaro, Foster was recruited by dozens of other elite programs but opted to stay home to be a Sun Devil. A top-100 national recruit by multiple services, Foster has elite level quickness, speed, change of direction and versatility and can be effectively used in a variety of ways. With his college football career starting in the fall, Foster figures to be a perfect match for Coach Graham's offense as a dangerous all-purpose threat.

In addition to the addition of Foster, in February ASU acquired the signature of another nationally prominent rusher in Marion Grice of Blinn Community College in Texas. Unanimously regarded as the top junior college running back in the country and listed as a top-five overall junior college recruit by multiple sources, Grice totaled 2,221 rushing yards and 33 touchdowns in two community college seasons and brings a well-rounded playing style and college experience to Tempe this fall.

To round out the running back recruits for 2012, ASU extended to international territory for Terrell Davis of Victoria, B.C., Canada. A reliable, powerful runner, Davis guided his team to a province championship in 2011 after rushing for 1,355 yards with 20 touchdowns.

WIDE RECEIVER

With the departure of five scholarship wide receivers from 2011 that each made significant career contributions to ASU, the Sun Devils now look to a field of young, talented athletes to complement those that return from last season's rotation.

In 2011 few players in the Pac-12 Conference were as exciting and as dangerous as all-purpose dynamo Jamal Miles, who proved to be an end zone threat all over the field. The Second Team All-Pac-12 selection as a kickoff return specialist, Miles is a multi-tool threat as he accounted for 10 total touchdowns in 2011: six by reception, two by kick return, one by punt return and one touchdown pass. In all, he caught 60 passes for 361 yards and also rushed 29 times for 237 yards. ASU's active career leader with 91 catches for 622 yards with 10 touchdowns in 32 career games with 24 starts, the product of Peoria High School has firmly cemented himself as one of the league's most reputably potent skill players.

Entering his senior season as a Sun Devil, Miles likely will be called upon to carry a greater palate of receiving responsibilities as his experience will be vital toward ASU's replacement of several key receivers from last fall. A two-time all-conference pick and a two-time league Player of the Week selection, Miles' versatility not only benefits his individual contributions, but can create opportunities for those around him as defenses must key in on where he is on the field at all times.

A walk-on through his first three years on campus, Kevin Ozier enjoyed a noteworthy sophomore campaign in 2011 and was awarded a scholarship from Coach Graham this offseason. Ozier first drew attention with his consistency in practices both last spring and last summer and ultimately caught 11 passes for 169 yards and one touchdown in the fall. This spring, Ozier has been among the most reliable offensive players in practice and is fully capable of being a full-time starter this fall. The cousin of legendary Sun Devil running back J.R. Redmond, Ozier brings a well-rounded skill set to the offense and is expected to see his productivity and playing time increase immensely as a junior in 2012.

In his first year as a Sun Devil after a two-year junior college career, Rashad Ross had multiple instances of showing off his jaw-dropping speed and expectations are that he takes on a significant role as a deep threat as a senior in 2012. In total, Ross caught 18 passes for 254 yards and a touchdown and he built major momentum for 2012 with an impressive conclusion to the season by catching five passes for 108 yards and a touchdown in the regular season finale against California then also returning the opening kickoff of the second half against Boise State in the MAACO Bowl Las Vegas 98 yards for a score.

Prior to the start of spring football practices, Ross competed with ASU's indoor track team and excelled marvelously, registering a time of 21.25 in the 200-meters which is the fastest time in the event this season among the many college football players that double as track athletes and also is the sixth-fastest indoor time in Sun Devil history. As a senior, Ross will be counted on to provide a reliable presence in all levels of the pass game and also likely will be turned to as a lethal specialist in the return games.

After showcasing marked improvement last offseason, 2011 was expected to be a breakout season for J.J. Holliday, however an injury not long before the waning days of fall camp derailed his progress and caused him to miss 10 games. Now back to full health, the junior from rival turf in Tucson has earned substantial playing time in the spring and has the tools to make 2012 his best season yet as a Sun Devil. Boasting speed, smarts and reliable hands, Holliday is a well-packaged target with a high ceiling in ASU's offense.

Last season, A.J. Pickens showed flashes of superb athletic ability and on the season he hauled in 12 passes for 140 yards with two touchdowns as a participant in all 13 games. With the departures at the position from 2011, Pickens will strive to use his experience as a fifth-year senior to earn extended playing time in the Sun Devil offense.

Gary Chambers and Karl Holmes, both redshirt freshmen, are gifted with solid size for the position and have both shown the requisite talents to be quick contributors to the Sun Devil offense. Both standing 6-foot-3, Chambers and Holmes hope to be among the top of the list of those working to fill the height void left by Robinson and Willie from a year ago.

Kevin Anderson has exhibited moments of great potential in practice and continues to work for valuable playing time.

One of the nation's most productive junior college wide receivers, Alonzo Agwuenu will arrive in the fall and plans to use his size and community college experience to make a quick impression on the offense. At Walnut (Calif.) Mt. San Antonio Junior College last season, Agwuenu caught 73 passes for 1,025 yards with 19 touchdowns and earned first-team all-region honors. With the departure of tall, physical receivers such as Gerell Robinson and Mike Willie, Agwuenu will look to earn extensive action in 2012.

Josiah Blandin will arrive in the fall as one of four Long Beach (Calif.) Poly High School products that signed with ASU in February. A lengthy athlete and viable red zone target, Blandin earned All-West region honors by PrepStar and was rated by ESPN as the nation's No. 67 wide receiver recruit.

An electric all-purpose athlete, Richard Smith will bring his reputation as a standout playmaker to ASU in the fall. A PrepStar All-American in 2011, Smith was rated by ESPN as the No. 39 wide receiver prospect in the country after catching 41 passes for 623 yards with eight touchdowns, while also being a standout on defense and special teams despite missing three games as a senior.

TIGHT END

In Coach Graham's offense, the tight end position is expected to be used more frequently and diversely than recent Sun Devil offenses, whether in a traditional line of scrimmage role or a shifting backfield capacity.

Chris Coyle and Max Smith return from last year's roster and both have seen time at tight end during their Sun Devil careers. Coyle, formerly a high school All-American at tight end, was relocated to wide receiver last season, but figures to add experience to his original position after seeing action in all 13 games last season. Smith, a local product of Scottsdale Saguaro High School, has appeared in 18 games over two seasons as a Sun Devil and has the ability to play either tight end position. With Coyle out for most of the spring after offseason surgery Smith earned extensive playing time and emerged as a viable target for ASU's quarterbacks. Steady in the classroom as well as on the gridiron, Smith earned Honorable Mention Pac-12 All-Academic in 2011. Smith is expected to play the traditional tight end position, while Coyle is presumed to be an excellent fit at the three-back spot.

One of the unsung offensive signees this past February may prove to be Darwin Rogers, who comes to ASU by way of Arizona Western College, home of one of the nation's elite junior college football programs. Rogers, who initially was set to begin his college career at the University of Illinois after high school, brings excellent size and has shown the physical tools to be a consistent contributor at tight end. Rogers impressed throughout the spring and likely will be in the conversation to be a starter in the fall, as he exited spring drills as the top tight end and second on the depth chart at three-back.

In the spring, former running back Marcus Washington was repositioned to tight end and his work ethic and versatility proved to be major assets as the Phoenix Desert Vista High School graduate has made some of the most significant contributions since arriving on campus two years ago. Washington saw action as a runner and a receiver during the spring and will vie for action at three-back in the fall.

Redshirt freshman walk-on Alex Bykovskiy adds depth at tight end.

In the fall a familiar name will join the tight end depth as Kody Kohl, younger brother of last year's starter Trevor Kohl, will arrive after signing with ASU in February. An All-Arizona selection as a senior at Gilbert's Mesquite High, Kohl totaled 29 catches for 506 yards and four touchdowns in 2011 and added 60 tackles, 10 pass deflections, 8.5 sacks, two blocked field goals, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery as an outside linebacker.

OFFENSIVE LINE

ASU's 2012 offensive line features a pair of players with over 20 career starts as senior right guard Andrew Sampson (22 career starts) and junior left tackle Evan Finkenberg (21) collectively bring leadership and experience to a group that is tasked with the responsibility of replacing five departed seniors that earned starting nods throughout the 2011 season.

WR JAMAL MILES

ASU's starting quarterback in 2012.

Similar to Finkenberg, Sampson brings a broad skill set to ASU's offense as the fifth-year senior has the experience and ability to play multiple interior line positions. Also much like his linemate Finkenberg, Sampson has become a fixture as one of the team's leading blockers, entering 2012 with 20 consecutive starts dating back to the early part of his sophomore year.

Finkenberg, a two-year starter dating back to the beginning of his ASU career as a Freshman All-American in 2010, brings an athletic, versatile presence to the offensive line and gives coaches the luxury of a player that can be shuffled along the line if needed. The Coto de Caza, Calif., native gives the Sun Devils a significant advantage as the third-year starter likely will be assigned to blindside protection for

After utilizing a redshirt season in 2011, Brice Schwab began spring practice in incredible physical condition and the former four-star junior college recruit is poised to claim a first-team spot as a senior. In 2010, Schwab was a starter in four contests and saw duty at both tackle and guard but presumes to be the front-runner to take over the team's starting right tackle spot, vacant after the departures of Dan Knapp and Aderious Simmons.

Entering the spring, perhaps the most watched position battle on the offensive line presumed to be at center, where a trio of linemen were jockeying for position to replace departed All-Pac-12 member and three-year starter Garth Gerhart.

Kody Koebensky, a local product from Scottsdale Saguaro High School, enters his fourth year in the Sun Devil football program and earned playing time in every game last season as Gerhart's primary reserve. Koebensky saw his name at the top of the depth chart at center during the spring and will look to use his team experience edge as a means to propel him to a full-time first-string role in 2012.

Able to play tackle or guard, sophomore Jamil Douglas has stepped up to be first in line to be the new starting left guard after the spot was manned primarily by seniors Mike Marcisz and Adam Tello in 2011. An athletically gifted player that grew from a tight end to a lineman during his high school days, Douglas' physical appeal has been evident since his arrival to ASU and he is viewed as one of the most prominent underclassmen on the Sun Devils' offensive line depth chart.

Guard Sil Ajawara and tackle Tyler Sulka gained useful experience as contributing redshirt freshmen a year ago, with Sulka earning a starting nod in ASU's victory at Utah. Both players have bright futures at ASU and will compete for game action as sophomores.

A pair of redshirt freshmen with intriguing upside in Devin Goodman and Vi Teofilo figure to battle for reps along the interior line, with Goodman able to play center or guard and Teofilo competing for action at offensive guard. Goodman was nationally rated as the No. 17 center prospect as a senior at Lakeland (Fla.) High School by Scout.com and Teofilo, one of the team's strongest overall players, was also a state champion heavyweight wrestler while at nearby Phoenix Moon Valley High School.

Mo Latu, a heralded in-state recruit as both an offensive and defensive lineman while at local Gilbert Perry High School, switched to offense after spending his redshirt season in 2011 on defense. During his first session of spring drills as a Sun Devil, Latu has competed with Koebensky and Goodman for reps at center and, similar to the aforementioned center candidates, has the ability to play guard as well.

Senior Kyle Johnson, who has appeared in 17 career games including all 12 games of the 2010 season, adds experienced depth at the tackle positions.

Junior Aristicus Forster and sophomore Chip Sarafin, both walk-ons, provide additional offensive line depth.

One of the prizes of ASU's 2012 recruiting class, Evan Goodman will join his older brother Devin on the roster this fall and compete for playing time on the offensive line. An elite recruit able to play either left or right tackle, Goodman was rated the No. 16 offensive tackle recruit in the nation and chose the Sun Devils over offers from dozens of elite programs across the nation. Goodman is considered to have elite athleticism and tenacity for his position and will arrive on campus with the intention to compete for immediate action.

Stephon McCray will bring a powerful physical presence to the lineup this fall as well as versatility, as he is able to play either offensive guard or tackle. Regarded by ESPN as the nation's No. 21 offensive guard recruit, ASU's coaching staff is very optimistic for McCray's future as a Sun Devil.

After playing just one year of junior college football at Navarro Community College in Texas, William McGehee was signed in February and will arrive in the fall. A former basketball standout in high school, McGehee comes to Tempe with four years to play three and projects to be a very intriguing option at offensive tackle.

DEFENSE

In addition to his offensive prowess, Coach Graham, a former defensive player, has historically molded several fierce, physical defenses, highlighted by his 2010 Tulsa team that led the nation in interceptions (24) and finished third in the nation in turnovers gained (36).

Graham inherits a defense that showed a knack for generating turnovers throughout the 2011 season and the 2012 lineup features a mixture of seasoned veterans and impact underclassmen.

This season, ASU will show numerous schematic looks on defense, with three-or four-man sets both on the defensive line and at linebacker, with hybrid positions taking on end and outside linebacker as well as outside linebacker and safety responsibilities.

ASU's defense intends to persistently attack and relentlessly pursue opponents, aided by top-flight versatility and athleticism at every defensive position on the roster.

DEFENSIVE LINE

Along the defensive line, the Sun Devils feature a host of tenacious and versatile athletes, well prepared to facilitate the multiplicity ASU figures to feature up front. Though the team will need to replace starting tackle Bo Moos and starting end Jamaar Jarrett, through the spring the line has been active and effective in practice.

Will Sutton enters his junior season poised to take over as a leading force after starting 12 games in 2011. A physical athlete with a motor that never stops, Sutton tallied 33 tackles last season, including 5.5 for loss and 2.5 sacks. One of several Sun Devils to have come from the Corona (Calif.) Centennial High School program, Sutton owns more career starts (14) than any defensive lineman on the Sun Devil roster. Sutton combines both power and quickness to potentially be a devastating force against opposing linemen.

A former five-star recruit during his high school days at local power Scottsdale Saguaro High School, Corey Adams boasts all the qualities necessary to be a full-time first-stringer after three years spent as a reliable reserve at defensive tackle. Though he was limited during the spring, Adams is expected to return in the fall to compete for a starting position. When at full strength, Adams brings a rare combination of raw power and the athletic skills to be a playmaker in opposing backfields. After the spring, Adams stands atop the depth chart at nose tackle and should be a prominent player regardless the defensive alignment.

One of ASU's most valuable newcomers in 2011, Davon Coleman's responsibilities likely will boom in 2012 as he will be counted on to be a consistent force at defensive end. Coleman appeared in all 13 games during his debut season with three starts, collecting 42 tackles, including 5.0 for loss and 2.5 sacks. Bringing prototypical size in addition to excellent physicality, Coleman's development will be integral to help offset the loss of former all-conference honoree Jamaar Jarrett at defensive end.

The availability of Junior Onyeali, the Pac-10 Conference's Defensive Freshman of the Year, remains uncertain as he has served a team suspension all spring.

No defensive lineman on the roster has appeared in more games than senior Toa Tuitea, whose 27 appearances over three years give him ample experience to draw upon as he prepares for his final college season. Able to play tackle or end, Tuitea appeared in all 13 games last year in a reserve capacity and will be relied upon to add valuable depth at multiple line positions. Currently, Tuitea is listed as a primary reserve nose tackle behind Adams.

Similar to Tuitea, junior Gannon Conway has the size and versatility to play multiple line positions. Conway saw action as a reserve in 2011 and is listed as a primary backup at defensive end.

One of the nation's most intriguing stories among this February's college football signees, United States Marine Corps veteran Jake Sheffield arrived at ASU for spring ball after a two-year career at the College of the Desert in Palm Desert, Calif. Sheffield not only brings unparalleled maturity and determination, but also valuable playing experience, as he earned All-Conference honors last season and was named the nation's No. 57 overall junior college prospect by SuperPrep. In the spring, Sheffield saw substantial playing time at defensive tackle and will be expected to be a key contributor.

Defensive end Sean O'Grady will begin his Sun Devil playing career after redshirting last fall. As a senior at Tesoro High School in Las Flores, Calif., O'Grady registered 11.0 sacks and brings impressive pass rush skills to the Sun Devil line.

Walk-on Cutter Baldock will add depth along the defensive line and saw action in practice throughout the spring.

A powerful, hard-working leader for one of Arizona's most dominant high school programs, Jaxon Hood helped lead Chandler Hamilton High School to two state championship games, including a state crown in 2010. As a senior in 2011, Hood collected 100 tackles, including 23 for loss and 13.0 sacks, en route to receiving the Curley Culp Award, named after the former Sun Devil great and presented to Arizona's top high school defensive lineman. Hood also brings great football bloodlines to Tempe, as his father Eric Swann starred in Sun Devil Stadium for the Arizona Cardinals in the 1990s.

A massive, but physically gifted athlete,

Mike Pennel signed with ASU after a stellar two-year career at nearby Scottsdale (Ariz.) Community College. The prototypical nose tackle, Pennel, at 6-foot-5, 340-pounds, has every skill necessary to dominate the line of scrimmage. Rated by Rivals.com as the No. 36 overall junior college transfer in the country, Pennel earned All-America honors in 2011.

LINEBACKER

Few positions on the roster showcased as crucial spring competition as linebacker, where athletes that comprised four of ASU's top six overall tacklers depart from the 2011 roster. Despite these losses, the Sun Devils welcome back one of the team's greatest emotional leaders after a year off and have a host of hungry and talented competitors looking to earn increased playing time.

Though prior to late last August it was certainly not expected that Brandon Magee would be a member of ASU's 2012 roster, the fifth-year senior's presence on the team is irreplaceable as his leadership, determination and enthusiasm are contagious and rival qualities of any highly-respected leader to play at ASU in many seasons.

The 2011 season, of course, was slated to be Magee's fourth and final year as a Sun Devil however an achilles injury less than three weeks before the season opener forced him to miss the entire year and utilize a redshirt season. Magee has since worked tirelessly to return to the field and saw light action this spring, setting him well on pace to be back in the lineup to start the 2012 season. The Corona, Calif., native's importance to the Sun Devil football program cannot be overstated as many of his peers and younger teammates at every position on the roster have benefitted from his guidance.

Not just a motivational figure in the locker room, Magee is one of the Pac-12's most tenacious and athletically gifted defenders as he's collected 113 tackles, including 12.0 for loss in 32 career games with 12 starts and when healthy is ASU's top option at outside linebacker.

In the wake of the departed contributors at linebacker, a variety of candidates have emerged this offseason to take on greater roles. After gaining valuable playing experience as reserves last season, Anthony Jones, Kipeli Koniseti and Matthew Tucker will now work for depth chart promotions while Isreal Marshall prepares to put his great potential to the test in live game action.

Jones and Tucker are listed as the primary "Spur" linebackers that will have the expectation to be versatile both in run support and in pass defense, while Koniseti exited spring drills atop the depth chart at middle linebacker. Walk-on Charles Beatty also adds depth at the "Spur" position.

Jones has long been considered perhaps ASU's most athletic linebacker and in 2012 will be in position for a legitimate chance to be a regular starter. A product of local powerhouse Hamilton High School in Chandler, Jones appeared in every game last year on special teams and as a reserve linebacker and has the athletic fluidity and range to stand out this season.

Perhaps the most improved defensive players this spring and one of the team's most overall impressive competitors through spring practices, Koniseti has been a force and frequently shown his ability to play the position with discipline and be a difference maker all over the field. After playing in nine games as a sophomore in 2011, Koniseti appears determined to be a key contributor as a junior.

A former safety, Tucker was a participant in all 13 games last season as a reserve linebacker and on special teams. As a junior he figures to use his range and team experience to compete for repetitions at outside linebacker.

Walk-ons Brandon Johnson and Grandville Taylor provide qualified depth and have been substantial depth contributors during their careers. Johnson served as one of ASU's primary backup linebackers in all 13 games last year and totaled 13 tackles and two fumble recoveries while Taylor also appeared in every contest after netting Honorable Mention Academic All-Pac-10 recognition the year before. Johnson and Taylor finished spring practice listed second on the depth chart at "MIKE" and "WILL" linebacker, respectively.

After Magee was lost for the season last August, Marshall was nearly selected to bypass a redshirt year due to how quickly he asserted himself with learning the defense and how he showcased his athletic tenacity. Though he ultimately redshirted in 2011, the product of Phoenix's Mountain Pointe High School has outstanding upside and should battle to be a top "WILL" linebacker reserve in the fall.

In addition to last year's returning depth players, with schematic changes implemented by Coach Graham's arrival, a handful of versatile defenders can be used either at defensive end or linebacker at the "Devil" linebacker position. Namely, Carl Bradford and Jordan McDonald started practicing this spring primarily at outside linebacker after all three played defensive end in 2011 and both show the promise to excel moving forward.

Versatility and adaptability have been two of Bradford's best qualities as his high school career was spent exclusively playing fullback before he came to ASU as a linebacker in 2010. Early in his redshirt freshman season, Bradford was realigned to defensive end where he showed major promise. In all, he appeared in all 13 games with a start at defensive end in ASU's MAACO Bowl Las Vegas appearance, collecting 12 tackles including 3.5 for loss and 1.0 sack. Also one of ASU's hardest workers in the weight room, Bradford is viewed as a breakout candidate for 2012.

After making impressive advancements in the weight room and on the practice field, McDonald now looks forward to using his athleticism to cause havoc in opposing backfields as a sophomore. A Scottsdale native, McDonald was one of the state's top pass rushers during his days at Saguaro High School and has been working diligently to establish a similar reputation at ASU.

One of the state of California's most outstanding defenders last season, Salamo Fiso of Long Beach Poly High School is viewed as having a very bright future at ASU. An all-state, all-region and league Defensive Most Valuable Player in 2011, Fiso collected a team-high 127 tackles with 4.5 sacks as a senior and was rated by Rivals.com as the No. 26 linebacker prospect in the country. Fiso will arrive in Tempe in the fall.

During his stellar career at Arizona Western College, Steffon Martin earned the reputation as one of the premier junior college linebackers in the country. In 2011, Martin earned first-team all-conference honors after he totaled 108 tackles, including 17 for loss, earning him recognition by Rivals.com as the nation's third-best junior college linebacker and the No. 34 overall junior college prospect in the country. Martin boasts all the qualities required out of a prototype middle linebacker and hopes to be among the main challengers to start at the position this fall.

A sensational overall athlete, Carlos Mendoza starred at linebacker, running back and kick returner at California's Oaks Christian High School. In 2011, Mendoza was rated by Scout.com as the No. 54 outside linebacker recruit in the country and brings reported 4.49 40-yard dash speed to Tempe this fall.

Matthew Rowe, whose two brothers played football at Pac-12 schools, collected 83 total tackles in 2011 as a star for Long Beach (Calif.) Poly High School. Listed by ESPN as the No. 37 outside linebacker recruit in the country, Rowe is regarded as a fierce defender and will start his college career this fall at ASU.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

The Sun Devils enter 2012 with a marked experience advantage at cornerback, as every player to see action in 2011 returns and the group will also see upgrades by way of a handful of scholarship athletes that did not see game action last fall.

WR KYLE MIDDLEBROOKS

OUTLOOK

The projected first-string pair of senior Deveron Carr and junior Osahon Irabor returns after both players started all 13 games in 2012. A part-time starter as a redshirt freshman in 2009, Carr has been slated as a first-team cornerback for ASU since his sophomore year and enters his final year as a Sun Devil as one of the team's most seasoned overall players. In 2011, the Scottsdale native tallied 45 tackles and a team-high 10 pass breakups.

Irabor has started 20 consecutive games dating back to his redshirt freshman season in 2010 and totaled 48 tackles, six pass breakups and one interception as a sophomore in 2011. Irabor has earned rave reviews from ASU's coaching staff for his effort in the spring and is positioned to be a defensive leader for the Sun Devils.

One of the defense's most intriguing newcomers for 2012 may figure to be cornerback Robert Nelson, who arrived in Tempe last summer after transferring from the University of Louisiana-Monroe. In 20 total games during the 2009-10 seasons, Nelson saw substantial action and enters his first year on the field at ASU as a prime competitor for ample playing time. In the spring, Nelson earned periodic first-team reps at cornerback and will be counted on to add a valuable presence in the Sun Devil secondary.

A pair of high-potential sophomores consisting of Devan Spann and Rashad Wadood is likely to give the coaches viable options on the cornerback depth chart. Spann missed all of 2011 due to an injury that also sidelined him for the spring, a contributing factor to Wadood foregoing a redshirt year last fall to see playing time as a true freshman. Both players bring a physical and athletic presence and plan to be a credible part of the cornerback rotation in the fall.

A player of intrigue this spring has been Jarrid Bryant, recently moved to cornerback from wide receiver. At 6-foot-5, the junior's towering presence for the position is a standout quality from which he has benefitted since the position change.

Joe Eason redshirted in 2011 after a high school career during which he played cornerback, safety and quarterback and will look to carve out a role as a redshirt freshman this season. Walk-on Ronald Kennedy, Jr. enters his fourth year in the program and has been a valuable contributor in practices.

At safety, despite the losses of last year's usual starters Eddie Elder and Clint Floyd, ASU maintains a steady flow of starting and overall game experience entering 2012.

One of the defense's most versatile athletes, in only two years at ASU Alden Darby has seen time at multiple positions and has emerged into a bright young defensive back. Last season, Darby saw action at safety and cornerback and is the Sun Devils' returning leader in total tackles (51) and interceptions (three) while playing in all 13 games with two starts. Entering his junior season Darby has the potential to compete for all-conference honors and figures to be a defensive standout for the Sun Devils.

Keelan Johnson, who hasn't missed a game through his first three years at ASU, has also started six career contests and will vie for a starting role after posting 48 tackles and two interceptions in 2011. One of the team's most veteran players and the team's second-leading returning tackler behind Darby, the Mesa High School product has the athletic skill set to be a difference maker at safety in 2012.

Last fall, few newcomers impressed as much as Ezekiel Bishop, who enjoyed a sensational fall camp and was picked to receive playing time as a true freshman. Unfortunately, Bishop's rookie campaign was quickly cut short due to a season-ending injury in the season opener that forced him to utilize a medical redshirt. A fierce and instinctive player, Bishop brings a non-stop motor to the field and has the ability to make a major impact for ASU. Bishop spent the spring continuing his rehabilitation and did not participate in drills, but figures to compete for extensive time in the fall.

After transferring to ASU from the junior college level last fall, Kevin Ayers appeared in all 13 games with 15 total tackles and played impressively this spring to warrant a greater role as a senior, while junior Shane McCullen adds depth at safety and is also a consistent special teams contributor.

Oliver Johnson will arrive at ASU in the fall after a stint at Pierce College in Los Angeles, Calif. Last season, Johnson was rated by SuperPrep as the second-best junior college cornerback in the nation and the No. 21 overall junior college prospect in the country and brings high school and college experience at defensive back, wide receiver and on special teams returns to ASU.

A tough, fearless safety, Viliami Moeakiola will arrive this fall after a standout career at Euless (Texas) Trinity High School. Moeakiola was rated by Rivals.com as the No. 42 safety recruit in the country and earned all-region honors from PrepStar.

Chris Young will come to ASU in the fall with high expectations, as he was widely considered one of the top junior college players last year by being named the Western States Football League Defensive Player of the Year and a First-Team All-American. In 2011, Young totaled 111 tackles, including 30 for loss and 8.5 sacks, with five fumble recoveries, four forced fumbles while accumulating six total defensive touchdowns. The national junior college leader in yards lost by way of tackles for loss, Young can play safety or linebacker and also starred at running back during his nationally prominent high school career at Seattle (Wash.) Auburn Senior High School. This fall, Young will be expected to add a hard-hitting, playmaking presence and should contend for consistent playing time in 2012.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Following the stellar four-year career of former All-American and Lou Groza Award winner Thomas Weber, Alex Garoutte spent the 2011 season as ASU's full-time placekicker. In all, Garoutte connected on 15-22 field goals with a long of 49 yards. The Phoenix native ended the year on a high note, making six of his final seven field goal attempts, including four straight over the season's final three games.

Josh Hubner enjoyed a solid debut season as a Sun Devil, averaging 41.3 yards on 62 punts. Entering his senior season he looks to continue to provide consistency in the field position battle as ASU's punter. Hubner also might hold for Garoutte's kicks, with quarterback Mike Bercovici also as an option.

With the graduation of last year's snapper Cameron Kastl, Easton Wahlstrom was provided a scholarship and graduated early from Scottsdale's Desert Mountain High School to take over the position as a freshman.

Over the past two seasons, few teams in college football have been as spectacular in the return game as have the Sun Devils. In 2011, only ASU ranked in the nation's top-10 in both punt and kick return averages, while the Sun Devils lead the Pac-12 conference in both categories. Since the start of the 2010 season, four different Sun Devils have returned kickoffs for touchdowns, including Jamal Miles and Rashad Ross who return for duty in 2012.

In addition to being ASU's leading returning receiver, Miles has garnered frequent notoriety as one of college football's premier return threats. In 2011 Miles averaged 26.3 yards on 30 kickoff returns with two touchdowns while also averaging 16.6 yards on 14 punt returns with one score. Miles also had a 99-yard kickoff return touchdown as a sophomore in 2010, giving him four career special teams touchdowns. Though he was only two punt returns shy of being eligible for national recognition, his average would have ranked third in the FBS, while Miles rated second in the Pac-12 and 18th in the nation in kickoff return average, helping him receive Second Team All-Pac-12 recognition as a kickoff returner.

In his first year as a Sun Devil, Ross made some major noise on kick returns, averaging an astounding 30.4 yards on 13 returns, including a 98-yard touchdown against Boise State. Ross brings elite speed to both ASU's offense and special teams and figures to be a major playmaker in 2012.

Not to be forgotten in the returns game is Kyle Middlebrooks, who has a career average of 24.8 yards on 33 kickoff returns, including a 95-yard near touchdown against Wisconsin in 2010. Cornerback Robert Nelson is also regarded as an option in the kick return game.

SCHEDULE

The 2012 season kicks off with in-state competition as the Northern Arizona Lumberjacks will make the trip from Flagstaff to Tempe for Tempe Night/Faculty, Staff and Military Appreciation Night. ASU has not lost to NAU since 1938 and most recently defeated the Lumberjacks 41-20 in 2010. The game will be played either Aug. 30 or Sept. 1.

On Sept. 8, Illinois will visit ASU for Sun Devil Club Night after the Sun Devils traveled to Champaign last September, with the Illini winning a hard-fought contest, 17-14. Illinois, with head coach Tim Beckman debuting in 2012, finished with a 7-6 record in 2011, including a victory over UCLA in the Kraft Fight Hunger Bowl. The Illini last played ASU in Tempe in 1988, with ASU emerging with a 21-16 victory.

The Sun Devils' non-conference slate will conclude with ASU's first road trip of 2012, as the team will head to Columbia, Mo., to take on the Missouri Tigers. Last season, ASU emerged victorious from an epic overtime battle, 37-30, amid a "Blackout" in Sun Devil Stadium. In 2011, the Tigers finished 8-5, capped off with a victory over North Carolina in the Independence Bowl.

On Sept. 22, the Utah Utes will come to Tempe for Parent's Weekend/Hall of Fame Weekend to take on the Sun Devils. Utah, a new member to the conference last season, ended 2011 with an 8-5 record including a victory over Georgia Tech in the Hyundai Sun Bowl. ASU defeated the Utes in Salt Lake City last season, 35-14.

ASU will play its first road game of the Pac-12 schedule in Berkeley, Calif., against California. In 2011, the Golden Bears finished 7-6 with a loss to Texas in the Bridgewater Education Holiday Bowl. After a bye week to begin October, ASU will face division rival Colorado on Thursday, Oct. 11 in Boulder, Colo. The Sun Devils defeated the Buffaloes 48-14 in Tempe last year. The Sun Devils last played in Boulder in 2006 when Colorado still resided in the Big XII Conference, with ASU taking a 21-3 win. The second of two consecutive Thursday games will feature three-time reigning conference champion Oregon, which visits Tempe for ASU's Ring of Honor Game, then the Sun Devils will host UCLA, guided by first-year head coach Jim Mora, the following Saturday for Homecoming. This two-game home swing includes the participants in the inaugural Pac-12 Championship Game, as the North Division champion Ducks took down the South Division winner Bruins to claim the league crown for 2011.

To begin the month of November, ASU will travel to Corvallis, Ore., to clash with the Oregon State Beavers on Nov. 3. The Sun Devils claimed last year's match-up in Tempe, 35-20.

On Nov. 10, USC will look to avenge last year's loss in Tempe—a 43-22 Sun Devil victory that marked the Trojans' most lopsided defeat of the 2011 season. This season, ASU will visit the Coliseum in Los Angeles with the intention to continue last year's winning ways against USC.

The final home game of the 2012 season will feature Washington State, under first-year head coach Mike Leach, on ASU's Senior Day on Nov. 17. The Sun Devils have defeated the Cougars in seven of the past eight head-to-head match-ups, including four straight in Tempe.

ASU's 2012 regular season slate will wrap up the day after Thanksgiving, Friday, Nov. 23 against rival Arizona. The Territorial Cup will once again be up for grabs when the Sun Devils travel to Tucson and ASU has held the recent edge in the series with eight wins in the past 13 contests.

HEAD COACH TODD GRAHAM

Arizona State University has named Pittsburgh head coach Todd Graham, who led Rice to its first bowl victory in 45 seasons in 2006 and then led Tulsa to back-to-back 10-plus win seasons for the first time in school history in 2007 and 2008, as its 23rd football coach. Vice President of Athletics Lisa Love and Chief Operating Officer Steve Patterson have announced.

While known for leading programs that post many of the top offensive numbers in the nation in recent seasons, Graham also is known as tough defensive coach who served as defensive and connect with the community, and represent our University with honor. In Todd Graham we have that person," says ASU President Dr. Michael Crow.

"There are 4.5 million people in Phoenix and one major university," Graham said. "There is no setting like that in the nation. We want to get the best and brightest Phoenix has to offer. We have a great city. We have a great product in our education as well as our football program. This is the best opportunity I've ever had to recruit to, and I'm excited to do that. We have to get out in the community, show them what we're all about and put a product on the field, in the classroom and in the community they can be proud of. You have to send a message and then actually deliver on that message." Deliver he has. Graham had over 250 speaking engagements before stepping foot on the practice field—speaking with players, alumni, and community groups to get them to buy into his philosophy of a new culture at ASU.

Born Dec. 5, 1964, Graham is 49-29 in his six-year head coaching career and most recently was head coach at Pittsburgh in 2011. He is well-known for his four-year stay at Tulsa from 2007-2010 when he led the Golden Hurricane to a 36-17 mark, which included three bowl wins and three seasons of 10-plus wins. The Golden Hurricane was one of just 11 schools to post back-to-back 10-win seasons in 2007 and 2008.

The native of Mesquite, Texas, had seasons at Tulsa which included coordinator at both Tulsa and West Virginia. He also has had an eye for hiring some of the nation's top assistant coaches on his staff.

"Criteria for our head coach was established, and the word that was at the forefront of discussions was 'energy'...energy towards promoting our program in the community and with former players. Energy towards instilling discipline, leadership and in recruiting. Energy towards representing our brand in every facet of the program," noted former Vice President for Athletics Lisa Love. "In Todd, we have not only hired a young and sitting head coach, but one with a history of success on the field and in hiring top-notch assistant coaches. For the first time in his career, he will be taking over a program with a strong nucleus at the beginning. We are excited to watch Coach Graham take over a very well-positioned program and elevate it to the next level."

"What we sought in a football coach was someone who would be in it for the long term at Arizona State, who would build and guide a program that would be competitive in the Pac-12 and on a national level year after year after year, who would communicate records of 10-4 (2007), 11-3 (2008) and 10-3 (2010) and in his final season the Golden Hurricane won games at Notre Dame and then topped No. 24 Hawaii 62-35 in its own bowl game. The Notre Dame win was dubbed the biggest upset of the 2010 college football season by ESPN's Kirk Herbstreit.

His team's have been scoreboard changers, as Tulsa twice led the nation in total offense (2007 at 543.9 yards per game and 2008 at 569.9 yards per game) and ranked fifth in 2010. His 2010 Tulsa team comprised of mainly his first recruiting class notched 505.6

TODD GRAHAM HEAD COACHING RECORD YEAR-BY-YEAR

Year	School	Overall	Conference	Notes
2006	Rice	7-6	6-2 C-USA	Second in the West Division
2007	Tulsa	10-4	6-3 (C-USA)	First in West Division
2008	Tulsa	11-3	7-2 (C-USA)	Tied for first in West Division
2009	Tulsa	5-7	3-5 (C-USA)	Third in West Division
2010	Tulsa	10-3	6-2 (C-USA)	Tied for first in West Division
2011	Pittsburgh	6-6	4-3 (Big East)

yards per contest, but on the other side of the line of scrimmage the Golden Hurricane led the nation in interceptions (24) and was third in turnovers gained (36).

His 2007 squad not only led the nation in total offense at 543.9 yards per game, it set 29 school records, 15 conference marks and four NCAA records. Tulsa routed Bowling Green 63-7 in the GMAC Bowl, the largest bowl margin of victory in NCAA history.

His 2008 team again led the nation in total offense (569.9 yards per game) while ranking second in scoring (47.2 points per game), fifth in rushing (268 ypg) and ninth in passing (301.9 ypg). His team finished 11-3, capped by another large bowl win, a 45-13 victory over No. 22 Ball State in the GMAC Bowl.

The Sun Devil position will mark Graham's fourth head-coaching position, as he also led Rice to its first bowl game in 45 seasons in 2006 and earned Conference USA Coach of the Year honors that same season. What made the year even more impressive is the Owls started the year 0-4 before winning seven of its next nine. Three of the wins were on the last play of the game.

Graham was an all-state defensive back at North Mesquite High School and after graduating in 1983 he played for East Central University in Ada, Okla., where he was a two-time NAIA defensive back. He began his coaching career in 1988 as an assistant at Poteet High School in Mesquite (1988-90) and then helped lead East Central University from a .500 program to NAIA national champions in his second year as he served as defensive coordinator from 1991-93. One year later he was at Carl Albert High School in Midwest City, Okla., and then spent time from 1995-2000 at Allen High School in Allen, Texas. While at Allen, north of Dallas, he also served as athletic director and led a program that had no district wins in the year prior to his arrival to five playoff berths in six seasons (1995-2000).

He was hired as the linebackers coach at West Virginia in 2001 and one year later he was named defensive co-coordinator as West Virginia went from 3-8 to 9-4. The 2002 Mountaineers forced 34 turnovers (19 interceptions) and ranked fourth nationally in turnover margin (+19).

In 2003 Steve Kragthorpe hired Graham as the defensive coordinator at Tulsa and he helped guide the Golden Hurricane to two bowl games in three seasons and led one of the conferences best defenses before taking over the Rice position. His 2005 team finished 9-4, won the Conference USA Title and shut down a high-flying Fresno State squad 31-24 in the Liberty Bowl. His defense ranked among the top 40 in takeaways (third), interceptions (third), pass efficiency defense (11th), pass defense (17th) and total defense (40th).

Graham earned a bachelor's degree in education in 1987 from East Central and then later earned his master's degree.

Graham and wife Penni have seven children.

TULSA UNDER TODD GRAHAM

- In his first two seasons, the Golden Hurricane posted consecutive 10-win seasons for the first time in school history.
- Tulsa won a school-record 11 games in 2008.
- Tulsa led the nation in total offense in back-to-back seasons in 2007 and 2008, a first for any NCAA team since Nevada in 1995-96.
- His first hire as his offensive coordinator at Tulsa was Gus Malzahn. He also hired current Clemson offensive coordinator Chad Morris and current Texas co-offensive coordinator Major Applewhite.
- His 2010 squad ranked fifth in total offense (505.6 yards per game) and was sixth in scoring (41.4) but also led the nations in interceptions (24) and was third in turnovers gained (36).
- Tulsa's 661 points in 2008 was the second-highest total in modern era of NCAA at the time (second only to Oklahoma's 716 in 2008).

TURNING IT AROUND

Todd Graham was part of two of the NCAA's top single-season turnarounds in recent history. In 2002 Tulsa was 1-11, but under Graham's defensive leadership the team went 8-4 in 2003. At West Virginia, the Mountaineers were 3-8 but then jumped to 9-4 in his second season.

RETURN TO GREATNESS

How will we play defense? How about let's play it like Pat Tillman and Terrell Suggs played it. That's how we're going to do it. How are we going to play offense? How about we spin that ball like Jake Plummer and Danny White? I grew up in Dallas watching Danny White play. And how about we be as tough as Randall McDaniel? That's it. That's all we want to do.

INFLUENCES AS A HEAD COACH

"Well, I'll tell you, growing up, my hero was Tom Landry. Growing up in the Dallas community, Tom was – when you think about integrity, I think about Tom Landry and how he – his work ethic and his leadership, and even though my style and my – you've got to be generally who you are – is different, Tom Landry was one that I patterned myself after. Coach Gene Stallings is another that I patterned myself after."

A key figure in Todd Graham's high-octane offensive attack, Mike Norvell begins his first season in Tempe with Sun Devil football.

Norvell has worked with Coach Graham for the past five seasons at Tulsa and Pitt, starting as an Offensive Graduate Assistant and Receivers Coach with Tulsa. He spent two seasons as Passing Game Coordinator and Receivers Coach before adding Director of Recruiting to his title in 2010.

At Pitt in 2011, Norvell was the Co-Offensive Coordinator, Wide Receivers Coach and Director of Recruiting. While with Tulsa, the Golden Hurricane had five 1,000-yard receivers emerge under Norvell's tutelage. His most accomplished pupil was All-America receiver Damaris Johnson, who led the country in all-purpose yards for two consecutive years and set the all-time NCAA FBS record for that category with 7,796 career yards. Johnson averaged 202.2 all-purpose yards per game in 2010. In Tulsa's 62-35 win over Hawai'i in the Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl, he averaged an incredible 21.73 yards per touch en route to 326 all-purpose yards.

In 2008, Norvell's receivers were a vital part of college football's most prolific offense. Tulsa averaged an astounding 569.9 yards per game that season to lead the country. The Golden Hurricane ranked second nationally in scoring (47.1 points/game) and ninth in passing yards (301.8 yards/game). Tulsa also topped the country in total offense in 2007 (543.9 yards/game) and set 29 school records, 15 Conference USA marks and four NCAA records. The '07 Golden Hurricane became the first team in NCAA history to have a 5,000-yard passer, a 1,000-yard rusher and three 1,000-yard receivers in a single season.

Prior to Tulsa, Norvell was an Offensive Graduate Assistant at his alma mater, Central Arkansas. In addition to coaching receivers and H-Backs, he was a significant contributor to UCA's special teams.

Norvell was accomplished on the field and in the classroom at Central Arkansas. A four-year starter at receiver, he finished his career as the school's all-time leader in receptions (213) and ranked third in receiving yards (2,611). Norvell earned All-Gulf South honors and was the conference's 2001 Freshman of the Year. He also was a two-time first-team Gulf South All-Academic honoree. Norvell earned his bachelor's degree of education in social studies in 2005 and a master's degree in training systems in 2007, both from UCA.

DELVAUGHN ALEXANDER

Off. Passing Game Coord./Wide Receivers

DelVaughn Alexander begins his first season as an Assistant Coach at Arizona State University. Alexander spent the past five seasons with the Wisconsin Badgers, coaching Wide Receivers. While with the Badgers, Alexander was a part of two Big 10 championships and made five bowl appearances, including the last two Rose Bowls. No stranger to the Pac-12, Alexander has coached at both Oregon State and USC.

While at Wisconsin, Alexander saw the Badgers offense turn in some of the most prolific passing seasons in program history. During the 2011 season, Wisconsin passed for 3,280 yards, the highest total in school history. All-Big 10 receiver Nick Toon led the team with 64 catches for 926 yards and 10 scores. His 926 yards is the fifth-highest total in school history. Toon leaves Madison with the third-most receiving yards in school history and the fifth-most touchdown receptions. In 2009 UW passed for the fourth-highest yardage total in school history (2,770 yards).

Prior to his tenure at Wisconsin, Alexander served as the Running Backs Coach, Assistant Travel Coordinator, Assistant Special Teams Coordinator and NCAA rules representative at the University of San Diego from 2005 to 2006 under then-coach Jim Harbaugh. The 2005 USD offense led the nation and the Toreros won their conference title.

Alexander spent the 2003 and 2004 seasons in Corvallis, coaching the Oregon State wide receivers and acting as the recruiting coordinator for the Beavers. OSU placed wide receivers on the All-Pac-10 First Team during each of his two seasons with the Beavers. He arrived at Oregon State after coaching wide receivers and quarterbacks at UNLV from 2000 to 2002. He was also the passing game coordinator for the Rebels in 2000 and 2001. Alexander-coached players earned first-team All-Mountain West accolades in each of his three years there. He also coached at UNLV in 1998.

Alexander spent 15 months (March 1999 to July 2000) with the San Diego Chargers as a senior offensive assistant (running backs) and also had responsibilities with quality control, video analysis, opponent summaries and self scout.

Alexander began his coaching career in 1995, working as a Graduate Assistant at his alma mater, USC. Alexander lettered in football and track at USC and earned a bachelor's degree in social sciences / history in 1995. He played for two bowl-winning teams (1992 Freedom Bowl and 1994 Cotton Bowl) and has coached for five bowl-winning squads (1996 Rose Bowl, 2000 and 2003 Las Vegas Bowls and 2004 Insight.com Bowl, 2009 Champs Sports Bowl).

A native of Los Angeles, Alexander's family includes his wife, Star, and children: Jerome (J.D.), Jalen and Julian.

Bob Connelly, who spent the past four seasons coaching the offensive line and serving as Associate Head Coach and Co-Offensive Coordinator for UTEP, begins his first season as an assistant coach at Arizona State under head coach Todd Graham. Prior to UTEP, Connelly spent the 2007 season at UCLA and four seasons in Tuscaloosa, Ala., as the Offensive Line coach of the Alabama Crimson Tide.

While with the Miners in 2009, running back Donald Buckram shattered a UTEP single-season rushing record that had stood for over 60 years. Buckram ran for 1,594 yards on 259 carries, ranking third nationally in scoring (10.5 ppg), fourth in rushing (132.8 ypg) and 11th in all-purpose yards (170.6 avg.). Buckram set a UTEP record for 100-yard games with eight, while tying the school standard with three 200-yard performances.

UTEP's 2009 season was filled with offensive highlights, as the Miners pinned 50 points on a pair of bowl teams (Houston and Marshall) and received a school-record 517 yards passing from quarterback Trevor Vittatoe against the Thundering Herd. The Miners were particularly potent offensively in Conference USA play, averaging 36.1 points, 521.6 yards and 188.1 rushing yards in league action.

The 2008 Miners piled up 4,878 yards of offense and averaged 32.9 points per game. Injuries took their toll on the line late in the 2008 season, but Connelly adjusted accordingly. His patchwork unit still produced 37 points and 464 yards at Houston, as the Miners came within a touchdown of upsetting the Armed Forces Bowl champions. UTEP averaged 36.9 points and 427.5 yards versus Conference USA teams. The Miners had a season-high 277 yards rushing versus New Mexico State when Vittatoe went down with an ankle injury early and they were forced to implement an option attack around shifty signal-caller James Thomas.

Named one of the nation's Top 25 recruiters by Rivals.com in 2005, Connelly coached a number of All-SEC performers during his time with the Tide. His offensive line helped Alabama carve out the 20th-best rushing attack in the country and the top rushing game in the SEC in 2004. The Crimson Tide also ranked second in the SEC in fewest sacks allowed. In 2003, Connelly's line led a rushing attack that netted 2,067 yards - fourth-best in the Southeastern Conference - and produced two All-SEC linemen. Alabama played in three bowl games during his four seasons, including the 2007 Independence Bowl, 2006 Cotton Bowl and the 2004 Music City Bowl.

Prior to coaching at Alabama, Connelly spent two seasons tutoring the offensive line at Washington State. In Pullman, his 2002 squad allowed just 24 sacks in 424 pass attempts while helping the Cougars win a share of the Pac-10 title and play in the 2003 Rose Bowl. His 2001 unit gave up 27 sacks in 434 attempts and WSU played in the Sun Bowl.

Following graduation from Newman-Smith High School in Carrollton, Texas, in 1990, Connelly earned a degree in kinesiology and sports studies from Texas A&M-Commerce in 1994. A year later, he earned a master's in health, physical education and recreation. As a player, he was a three-time all-academic selection and earned all-conference honors as a junior and senior. He was also a two-time academic All-America selection.

While finishing his graduate degree at A&M-Commerce, Connelly coached the offensive line and tight ends. He moved to Cisco Junior College for two seasons (1996-97), again coaching the offensive line and tight ends. In 1998, Connelly was a graduate assistant at Texas A&M and coached in the Sugar Bowl. In 1999, he coached the offensive line and tight ends at California State Northridge and in 2000, he moved to San Jose State to coach the offensive line. That season, the Spartans rushed for 29 touchdowns and his unit allowed just 11 sacks in 12 games.

PAUL RANDOLPH Senior Associate Head Coach/Defensive Coordinator

Paul Randolph begins his first season with Arizona State University as Senior Associate Head Coach/ Defensive Coordinator and will work with the team's defensive line in 2012. Randolph spent last season at the University of Pittsburgh as Associate Head Coach, Co-Defensive Coordinator and defensive line coach.

Prior to his arrival at Pitt, Randolph spent four seasons at Tulsa, playing an instrumental role in the Golden Hurricane's emergence as a perennial bowl team. Tulsa won 36 games during that time, including three bowl victories. He helped mold a defense that led the country in interceptions in 2010 (24) and ranked third in turnovers forced (36).

In 2006, Randolph served under Graham as assistant head coach, defensive coordinator and linebacker coach at Rice. His efforts helped produce one of the most impressive revitalizations in recent college football history. The Owls earned their first bowl berth in 45 years after a 7-5 regular season that included victories in six of their final seven games.

Prior to Rice, Randolph was the defensive ends coach at Alabama (2003-05), where he helped the Crimson Tide boast one of the nation's toughest defenses. In 2005, Alabama led the country in scoring defense (10.7 points/game) while ranking second in total defense (255.1 yards/game), fifth in pass defense (160.8 yards/game) and ninth in rushing defense (94.3 yards/game).

Randolph also distinguished himself on the recruiting trail during his time in Tuscaloosa and was named one of the country's top 25 recruiters by Rivals.

He also spent time at West Virginia in 2002, coaching the defensive line. His other collegiate coaching stops include Toledo, Illinois State, Valdosta State and his alma mater, Tennessee-Martin.

An all-conference linebacker at Tennessee-Martin, Randolph went on to a decorated professional playing career in the Canadian Football League. He played eight seasons with Winnipeg (1988-95) and then served two years as a team captain and player-coach with the Montreal Alouettes (1996-97). Randolph helped Winnipeg to Grey Cup championships in 1988 and '90 before receiving induction into the Blue Bombers' Hall of Fame in 2002.

Randolph earned his bachelor's degree in electrical engineering technology from Tennessee-Martin in 1990.

No stranger to major college football, former Washington State University Co-Defensive Coordinator Chris Ball begins his first season at Arizona State under head coach Todd Graham. In addition to coaching WSU, Ball has also spent time at Pitt and at Alabama, mentoring numerous NFL talents.

Ball spent the past three seasons at Washington State as Assistant Head Coach, Co-Defensive Coordinator and Safeties coach. He arrived at WSU after spending the 2007 season as secondary coach at Pitt. During his only season with the Panthers, the Pitt defense ranked fourth nationally in pass defense (167.3 ypg) and seventh in total defense (297.7 ypg).

From 2003 to 2006, Ball coached the secondary for the Alabama Crimson Tide in the SEC. In 2004, Ball's secondary led the nation in pass defense, allowing just 113.1 passing yards per game and finishing second nationally in pass efficiency defense. The following season the Alabama secondary ranked fifth in both pass defense (160.8 ypg) and pass efficiency defense (97.8 rating), and the Crimson Tide ranked second nationally in total defense. In 2006, Ball oversaw the progress of free safety Roman Harper, who earned All-SEC honors and was a semifinalist for the Jim Thorpe Award, presented annually to the nation's top defensive back.

From 2000 to 2002, Ball coached defensive backs at Washington State, mentoring future NFL great Marcus Trufant. During his three seasons, WSU's defense compiled 56 interceptions, including 26 during the 2001 campaign, which tied for second nationally.

The St. Louis, Mo., native and 1981 graduate of Webster Grove High played football at Missouri Western State College and later served as a graduate assistant and defensive coordinator at his alma mater.

The 1985 All-American defensive back coached at both Northeast Missouri State (1986-87) and Akron (1987-88) before joining Mike Price's staff in 1989. He coached at Coffeyville Community College (1990-94), Western Oregon State College (1995-96) and Missouri Western State (1997-98). Prior to joining the Cougar staff in 2000, Ball spent the 1999 season as defensive coordinator for Idaho State Head Coach Larry Lewis

JOE LORIG Special Teams Coord./Cornerbacks Coach

Joe Lorig begins his first season at Arizona State under head coach Todd Graham. Lorig recently completed his fourth season as the Assistant Head Coach and Defensive Coordinator at Central Washington University.

During his time at Central Washington, the Wildcats posted a 34-12 record with three Great Northwest Athletic Conference championships and two appearances in the NCAA Division II playoffs. Lorig, whose Wildcat defense routinely placed among the top 10 in the nation in total defense, was named the 2010 American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Division II Assistant Coach of the Year.

In 2009, his defense led the NCAA Division II in scoring defense (11.9 points/game), and ranked third nationally in rushing defense (58.6 yards/game) and fourth in total defense (249.3 yards/game), earning him a spot as a finalist for the FootballScoop Division II Coordinator of the Year. His efforts helped the Wildcats finish that year at 12-1, earn a No. 1 national ranking in the final poll of the regular season and advance to the NCAA Division II quarterfinals.

In 2007, Lorig served as the Linebackers Coach at the University of Texas at El Paso. He spent one season on head coach Mike Price's staff before moving back to the Pacific Northwest to join the CWU coaching staff. Prior to UTEP, Lorig spent eight seasons as a Defensive Assistant with Idaho State University. He coached the linebackers and safeties at ISU, and was the Defensive Coordinator for Head Coach Larry Lewis from 2003-06.

His coaching career began as an assistant at Western Oregon, where he helped guide his alma mater to the 1997 Columbia Football Association championship and a berth in the NAIA post-season. A two-time All-Northwest Athletic Association of Community Colleges (NWAACC) honoree at cornerback at Walla Walla Community College, Lorig played his final two years of collegiate football at Western Oregon State College (now Western Oregon University), where he was a team captain.

He has mentored a number of professional players, including Jared Allen, an All-Pro defensive end from Idaho State who plays with the Minnesota Vikings of the National Football League, Jeff Charleston, the starting defensive end for the New Orleans Saints and Adam Bighill, a Division II All-American linebacker from CWU who was on the Grey Cup champion British Columbia Lions in 2011.

Lorig earned both his bachelor's degree in Law Enforcement (1995) and his master's in Correctional Administration (1997) from Western Oregon. A native of Edmonds, Wash., and an avid outdoorsman, his family includes his wife, Becky, and children: son, Tyler, and daughters, Jordan and Emma.

RON WEST Co-Defensive Coordinator/Linebackers Coach

Ron West begins his first season as an Assistant Coach at Arizona State University and will serve as the team's Co-Defensive Coordinator and work with the inside linebackers. With over 30 years of collegiate coaching experience, West most recently served at the University of New Mexico after spending the previous two years at the University of Illinois.

West comes to Arizona State with 15 years of experience on defense - eight as a coordinator - and 16 years on the offensive side of the ball. He was the defensive coordinator at New Mexico and the outside linebackers coach at Illinois, and spent the 2009 season as the co-defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Tulsa alongside Todd Graham before going to Illinois.

West implemented the 'Devil' position at ASU, which is modeled after the 'Bandit', a linebacker role that had great success in both the Big 10 and the ACC at Illinois and Clemson, respectively. His defenses at both universities recorded top-10 national finishes in total defense and enabled numerous players to garner both All-America and All-Conference accolades, as well as find success in the professional ranks.

In 2011, the Fighting Illini finished seventh in the nation in total defense with West's linebackers helping to lead the charge, allowing just 286.15 total yards per game and holding its opponents to just 4.42 yards per play. Illinois was also third in passing yards allowed per game at 162.31 ypg and finished 26th in rushing yards allowed per game with 123.85 ypg.

'Bandit' Michael Buchanan had a breakout 2011 season, registering 64 tackles, 13.5 tackles for loss and 7.5 sacks en route to second-team All-Big Ten honors. He ranked fifth in the Big Ten in sacks and eighth in TFLs.

In 2010, West guided Fighting Illini linebacker Nate Bussey to a seventh-round NFL draft selection and All-Big Ten honorable mention recognition after totaling 83 tackles, 8.5 tackles for loss and an interception returned for a touchdown. Buchanan also posted a strong season in 2010 with 40 tackles, 5.5 tackles for loss and two sacks.

While on the defensive coaching staff at Clemson, where West coached the outside linebackers for five seasons, his defenses ranked in the top-25 in total defense three times. His 2004 defense ranked in the top-25 in all four major categories, including a top-10 finish in scoring defense and total defense, and his 2005 Tigers' defense finished among the top-25 in six defensive categories. Clemson's defense also placed 18th in total defense and 13th in scoring defense in 2008.

In 2006, West coached one of the greatest players in Clemson history, the late Gaines Adams, who excelled in the 'Bandit' system and became the No. 4 overall pick in the 2007 NFL draft. Adams was named to all five All-America teams in 2006 and was recognized as one of seven unanimous first-team All-Americans that year. He started all 12 games that season, recording an ACC-best 12.5 sacks, causing two fumbles and recovering three. He finished his career with 28 total sacks to tie the school record set in 1984-87.

West spent a total of 10 seasons on the coaching staff at Clemson University (1999-2008), helping the Tigers win 76 games and play in nine bowl games. He began his stint on the Tigers' coaching staff as offensive line coach in 1999, and coached the offensive line for five seasons and spent the final five on the defensive side of the ball.

West helped Clemson to a number of big victories during his tenure, including a 63-17 win over South Carolina in Columbus, S.C., in 2003, marking one of the biggest defeats in legendary coach Lou Holtz's career. West's offensive line helped pave the way in that game as the Tigers scored the most points by either team in the 100-plus years of the cross-state series. Other notable wins include a 26-10 win over No. 3 Florida State and a 27-14 win over No. 7 Tennessee in the Chick-Fil-A Peach Bowl in 2003, as well as a 24-17 overtime win at No. 10 Miami in 2004.

Before arriving at Clemson, West spent two years on Tommy Bowden's coaching staff at Tulane University (1997-98), where he coached the offensive line. His influence as line coach in '97 saw the Green Wave total nearly 4,700 yards and a school record 375 points. A year later, Tulane posted a 12-0 record as the offensive line helped pave the way for an offense to average over 300 passing yards and 200 rushing yards.

A 1979 graduate of Clemson, West was a reserve offensive lineman in 1977 and 1978 for the Clemson Tigers. He started two games as a senior and helped his team post an 11-1 record and earn a No. 6 national ranking in the final Associated Press poll. His playing career began at Marion Institute, where he earned junior college All-America accolades before transferring to Clemson.

West and his wife Becky have two adult children, Brad and Lori.

CHIP LONG Assistant Coach Tight Ends/Recruiting Coord.

Chip Long spent the past two seasons as tight ends and fullbacks coach at the University of Illinois. Prior to joining the Fighting Illini, Long spent two seasons as a graduate assistant at the University of Arkansas, working with tight ends.

In his first season with the Illini, Long was given the task of molding tight ends and fullbacks out of a roster that was largely designed to run the spread offense. True-freshmen Evan Wilson and Jay Prosch thrived under his tutelage, with Wilson starting 11 games at tight end and Prosch starting seven at fullback. Wilson caught 10 passes for 135 yards and two touchdowns on the season, while Prosch asserted himself as a bruising blocker, most notably opening holes for running back Mikel Leshoure's school single-game record-breaking total of 330 yards against Northwestern on Nov. 20.

At Arkansas, Long helped develop tight end D.J. Williams, who became the first semifinalist in school history for the Mackey Award in 2008. As a sophomore Williams had a record-breaking season that saw him become an All-SEC first team selection by the Associated Press and a second-team honoree by the league coaches. He finished the season as the team leader in receptions (61) and receiving yards. In 2009, Williams was again a second-team All-SEC selection by the coaches and enters 2010 as a preseason All-American.

Prior to his stint in Fayetteville, Long spent two seasons at the University of Louisville and worked with the wide receivers and quarterbacks.

A receiver and tight end for North Alabama, Long was a multi-year starter and in 2005 earned All-America, first-team All-South Region and first-team All-Gulf South Conference honors. He helped the Lions to the national NCAA Division II semifinals in 2003 and 2005.

In the summer of 2010, Long was named as the tight end for the Gulf South Conference All-Decade Team. A native of Birmingham, Ala., Long received his bachelor's degree in history with minors in both psychology and business administration.

LARRY PORTER Assistant Coach (Running Backs)

Larry Porter begins his first season with Arizona State University as an assistant coach and will work with the team's running backs in 2012. Porter comes to the Sun Devils after spending the past couple seasons as the head coach at the University of Memphis.

Porter brings to the Sun Devils experience as a head coach at a Division I program as well as an impressive resume as a recruiter that has seen him ranked among the nation's best - if not the best - over the past several years.

Porter inherited a program at Memphis in 2009 that was 2-10 in the previous season, and led the charge to motivate the team, the staff, the fans and the city of Memphis to "Invest In The Helmet." Evidence of Tiger Nation "buying in" to Porter's vision of developing a championship culture could be seen in the city of Memphis investing in Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium, the alums and administration investing in the weight room and the turf field as well as the players investing in every aspect of the program.

Several Tigers received recognition for their contributions in 2010, and the squad also made strides under Porter, including improvements in the classroom and dedicated efforts to community involvement. Senior linebacker Jamon Hughes was one of five Tigers named to the All-C-USA team, and was Memphis' only first-team pick. Hughes ended the season ranked third nationally in tackles.

Porter set out with a no-nonsense approach to academics and the Tiger football program registered its highest team GPA since 2006 in spring 2010. For the fall 2010 semester, Tiger football landed 21 student-athletes in the 3.0 Club.

A native of Jackson, Miss., Porter spent five years on the LSU coaching staff. He had also worked three years with LSU coach Les Miles at Oklahoma State before joining Miles in Baton Rouge in 2005. He coached the LSU running backs while also holding two key roles on staff assistant head coach and chief recruiter. Porter was elevated to the position of assistant head coach during the spring of 2006. He was twice (2007 and 2009) named as the National Recruiter of the Year by Rivals.com, making him one of the top all-around assistant coaches in college football.

As LSU's running backs coach, Porter helped develop some of the finest players at that position in LSU's history. From 2005-09, LSU produced a 1,000-yard rusher twice Jacob Hester with 1,103 yards in 2007 and Charles Scott with 1,174 yards in 2008 as well as having five players (Hester, Joseph Addai, Quinn Johnson, Charles Scott, Trindon Holliday) selected in the NFL Draft. In three of his five seasons at LSU, the Tiger rushing unit averaged over 165 yards a game, including a high of 214 yards per game in 2007. That squad closed out the season ranked 11th nationally in rushing. From 2005-08, the Tigers totaled 108 rushing touchdowns, including 35 in 2007.

Porter and the Tigers had a "running back-by-committee" approach during the national championship season in 2007. Hester led all rushers with a career-best 1,103 yards and 11 touchdowns and was a second team All-SEC selection. He also posted four 100-yard rushing games, including a 120-yard effort against Tennessee in the SEC Championship Game. Williams was second on the squad with 478 yards and six scores, while Trindon Holliday was third with 364 yards and two touchdowns.

As a unit, LSU rushed for 214.1 yards per game and 35 touchdowns. The 214.1 yards per game and 35 rushing touchdowns both ranked second in the SEC. Another impressive feat for the Tiger running backs was the fact that they combined for 432 carries with just one lost fumble, which came against Tennessee in the SEC title game.

In his first year with the team in 2005, Porter made an immediate impact on LSU's running game as the Tigers rushed 1,951 yards and 21 touchdowns. LSU's rushing offense ranked fourth in the SEC, while the 21 rushing touchdowns were the second-most total in the league.

Addai had his best year in a Tiger uniform, rushing for 911 yards and nine touchdowns. Justin Vincent added 488 yards and five scores. Addai had five 100-yard rushing games, capped by a 130-yard, one-score performance in LSU's 40-3 win over Miami in the Peach Bowl. He went on to become a first round draft pick of the Indianapolis Colts in the 2006 NFL Draft, becoming the first LSU running back taken in the first round of the NFL Draft since Harvey Williams was the 21st overall pick by the Chiefs in 1991. Addai was a finalist for NFL Rookie of the Year in 2006 and played a key role in the Colts' Super Bowl victory over the Chicago Bears.

At Oklahoma State, Porter's stable of running backs continued the tradition of "Tailback U," as he coached 1,000-yard rushers for three-straight seasons. In 2004, Vernand Morency earned second team All-Big 12 honors after rushing for 1,474 yards, which ranked eighth in the nation, and 12 touchdowns. Morency was a third round pick of the Houston Texans in 2005.

Prior to his arrival in Stillwater, Porter spent three years at Arkansas State, where he coached Jonathan Adams to back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons. Adams rushed for 1,004 yards and six touchdowns in 2000 and followed that with another 1,004 yards and five scores in 2001. Under Porter's tutelage, Adams capped his career as the second-leading rusher in Arkansas State history.

Porter began his coaching career at Wooddale High School in Memphis, Tenn., serving as head track and field coach, while assisting with the running backs and secondary on the football squad. After two years at Wooddale, Porter moved to the collegiate ranks, coaching the running backs at Tennessee Martin in 1998.

Porter lettered four years (1990-93) at Memphis, serving as co-captain of the 1993 Tiger squad. He closed out his career with 2,194 yards and 20 rushing touchdowns, ranking seventh in school history in yardage and tied for fifth in touchdowns.

Porter had a total of six 100-yard games during his career, a figure that ranks tied for fifth in Memphis history. Porter graduated in 1996 with a bachelor's degree in education.

Porter and his wife Sharmane have three children: Brandon, Omari and Olivia.

KEOLA LOO GRADUATE ASSISTANT - OFFENSIVE LINE

Keola Loo will join Arizona State as a Graduate Assistant who will work with the offense.

Loo comes to Arizona State from Mt. San Antonio College in Walnut, Calif., where he was an assistant football coach and a member of the adjunct faculty.

At Mt. San Antonio, Loo oversaw the offensive line and tight ends and assisted with organizing the weekly practice and game plan and helped with organizing position drills. Loo was also the recruiting coordinator for Hawai'i and the Orange County area.

During Loo's time at Mt. San Antonio, the football team was the 2009 and 2010 National Junior College Champions and had won five consecutive Southern California Championships.

Loo earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Sociology and Criminology from Washington State University in 2005 and his Associate of Arts degree in Liberal Arts from Orange Coast College in 2003.

DAN LANNING GRADUATE ASSISTANT - OLB COACH

Dan Lanning arrived at Arizona State as a graduate assistant for defense after spending the last season with Graham at the University of Pittsburgh where he was a graduate assistant charged with working with the defensive backs.

Lanning worked with the corners and safeties and was the lead recruiter for several states in the Northeast while he was with the Panthers and was a member of the coaching staff that helped Pitt advance to the BBVA Compass Bowl at the conclusion of this season.

Prior to his stint at Pittsburgh, Lanning was an assistant football coach at Park Hill South High School in Riverside, Mo. There, Lanning worked with the defensive backs and wide receivers, as well as serving as the special teams coordinator.

Lanning earned his Master's Degree in Secondary Administration from William Woods University in Missouri in 2010 and earned a Bachelor of Science degree in both Physical Education and Secondary Education from William Jewell College in Missouri in 2008.

TIM CASSIDY SENIOR ASSOCIATE ATHLETIC DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL

Tim Cassidy joined the Arizona State University football program as the Senior Associate Athletic Director of Football in January 2012. Cassidy spent the previous four seasons as the Associate Athletic Director for football at Texas A&M University and is widely considered one of the top football administrators in the country.

Cassidy had 23 years of experience at Texas A&M rising from graduate assistant to recruiting coordinator, to assistant athletic director, to associate athletic director. During his career at Texas A&M, Cassidy was part of several championship teams. He was part of the 1985 and 1986 Southwest Conference Champions, the 1991, 1992 and 1993 Southwest Conference Championship squads, as well as the 1997, 1998 and 2010 Big 12 South title teams and the 1998 overall Big 12 Champion unit.

Cassidy coordinated travel, recruiting, budget and staffing for the football office, assisted with scheduling and oversaw the compliance, strength and conditioning, equipment and academic support units regarding football and he supervised the football support staffs.

Cassidy served as the associate athletic director for football at the University of Nebraska before his recent stint with the Aggies. In addition to working with the football staff and assisting in recruiting efforts, Cassidy was a key member of the athletic administration with the Huskers.

With more than 29 years of experience working in collegiate football, Cassidy was instrumental in the planning of the Tom and Nancy Osborne Athletic Complex that houses the Husker football team, coaches' offices, training room, weight room and administrative offices. He also assisted with the planning for the Texas A&M Bright Football Complex and the Nye Academic Center - a $28 million venture. The Bright Complex houses all of the football areas while the Nye Academic Center is an academic area for all Aggie student-athletes.

Cassidy had three tours of duty with the Aggies. He came to A&M from Morningside College where he was an assistant football coach from 1981-83. He joined Jackie Sherrill's Texas A&M staff as a graduate assistant in recruiting in 1983-84 and was promoted to recruiting coordinator in 1985-86.

He left A&M in 1987 to serve as the director of recruiting at the University of Florida in 1987 and 1988 before returning to serve on R.C. Slocum's first Aggie staff as recruiting coordinator from 1989-91. He was promoted to assistant athletic director for recruiting in the fall of 1991 and served in that capacity until Bill Byrne arrived at Texas A&M in December of 2002. Byrne and head football coach Dennis Franchione promoted Cassidy to associate athletic director for football for Texas A&M until Cassidy left for Nebraska in January of 2004.

Named among Tom Lemming's list of the top 10 recruiters in the nation in 1999, Cassidy helped the Nebraska football program claim one of the top rankings in the nation by most analysts for the 2005 recruiting class and helped produce three straight top-25 recruiting classes during his time there. Cassidy first gained a national reputation as a great recruiter in his two years as the director of recruiting and high school relations at the University of Florida.

A native of Omaha, Nebraska, Cassidy received his bachelors of science degree in physical education and health from Nebraska-Omaha in 1981. He received his master's degree in education from Texas A&M University in 1984. Cassidy and his wife, Nancy, have two sons Ryan (27) and Austin (23), and daughter Danielle (22).

JOHN WRENN ASSISTANT ATHLETICS DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

John Wrenn will enter his first year as Assistant Athletics Director of Football Operations and High School Relations under head coach Todd Graham in 2012.

Wrenn served as running backs coach and assistant special teams coach in 2006 for former head coach Dirk Koetter.

Wrenn compiled an impressive 223-46 won-loss record in 23 years of high school coaching, both at Hamilton High School and in the state of Illinois. He earned state Coach-of-the-Year accolades five times, three times in Arizona (1999, 2003 and 2004) and twice in Illinois. He has earned regional Coach-of-the-Year honors 15 times and was Chicago-area Coach-of-the-Year on four occasions.

Wrenn's teams competed in the state playoffs 19 times, winning three state championships. His squads were runners-up twice, semi-finalists three times and quarter-finalists four times. Wrenn won 16 Conference/Region Championships.

At Hamilton High, Wrenn's team posted a 91-11 eight-year record and won two state championships. Twice more his teams made it to the state championship game. His Hamilton resume also includes one state semi-finalist team and two quarter-finalist teams. Hamilton won the region championships five times (2000, 2002, 2003, 2004 and 2005).

At Perry High, Wrenn provided overall leadership, supervision and coordination of all sports programs. As Athletic Director at Hamilton High, Wrenn hired all coaches, helped develop all athletic facilities and supervised all athletic-related activities. He also served as the Department Head for Physical Education.

Wrenn's state of Illinois career included a 10-year stint as head football coach at Homewood-Flossmoor High School in Flossmoor, Illinois. His teams there compiled a 99-18 record, including one state championship, nine conference championships, nine state playoff appearances, two state semi-finalists and two quarter-finalists. Wrenn also served as the Assistant Athletic Director at Homewood-Flossmoor in 1995-96. In 1985-86, Wrenn was the Wide Receivers coach under Mike White at the University of Illinois. The Fighting Illini ranked in the nation's top 10 in passing that year and played in the 1985 Peach Bowl.

From 1982-84, Wrenn was the Head Football Coach at West Aurora High School in Aurora, Illinois. There, his teams posted a two-year record of 18-11 and won two conference championships and two state playoff berths.

Before a one-year stint at a private company in 1981-82, Wrenn was the Head Football Coach at East Aurora High School for two seasons (1979-81) and posted a 14-5 record, one conference championship and one state playoff appearance.

From 1977-79, Wrenn was an assistant football coach at West Aurora High and served in the same capacity between 1974-77 at Elgin Larkin High School in Elgin, Illinois.

As a player Wrenn was the Most Valuable Player for Western Illinois University in 1972. He lettered there between 1970 and 1973, captaining the teams in 1971 and 1972. He was a Division II All-American and still holds the school career interception record with 18. He is a member of the Western Illinois athletic Hall of Fame and was a Blue Key National Honor Society member.

Wrenn graduated from DeKalb High School (DeKalb, Illinois) in 1969 and was all-conference and all-area in football. He also competed in basketball, baseball and wrestling.

JOHN SANDERS COORDINATOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

John Sanders comes to the Sun Devils as the Coordinator of Football Operations after a successful career as the head coach at Scottsdale Saguaro High School, where he compiled a 62-7 overall record at the helm and recently led the team to the Division III state title.

Sanders will help oversee the day-to-day operations of the football program in his new role. Sanders took over as the head coach of the Sabercats in 2007 after spending five years as the defensive coordinator. In his first season, he led the team to a 14-0 record and a state championship.

Sanders' coaching career spans over 30 years, beginning as the receivers coach at Boise State from 1976-79 and saw stints at the UC San Diego, Colorado, the L.A. Express as part of the USFL and the Houston Oilers, where he was the tight ends coach in 1985.

Sanders began coaching at Arizona high schools in 1999 at Highland High School before coaching defensive backs at Desert Ridge in 2002 prior to his arrival at Saguaro.

Sanders is a graduate of the University of Southern Utah where he was also a member of the football team. He has two children, John (21) and Samantha (20)

BO GRAHAM ON-CAMPUS RECRUITING COORDINATOR

Bo Graham was named the On-Campus Recruiting Coordinator at ASU in February 2012. Bo Graham spent last season at the University of Pittsburgh, serving as the head graduate assistant and assistant wide receivers coach.

Before arriving at Pitt, Graham spent one season as the Offensive Coordinator at Tulsa Central High School. Prior to his time at TCHS, Graham was at the University of Tulsa as the running backs coach in 2007 and 2008.

Tulsa led the country in total offense during both of Graham's seasons and in 2008 Tulsa ranked fifth nationally in rushing offense. Graham guided running back Tarrion Adams into becoming the first running back in Tulsa history with over 3,000 career rushing yards and 1,000 career receiving yards. Adams also recorded two straight 1,000 yard rushing seasons, becoming Tulsa's single-season and career record holder.

Graham spent the 2006 season at Rice University as coordinator of speed and skill development and as assistant strength and conditioning coach.

Graham served three seasons (2003-2005) as a student assistant coach at Tulsa, working with the secondary. In each of his three seasons as an undergrad, Tulsa's defense ranked among the Top 40 nationally in takeaways, interceptions, pass defense efficiency, pass defense and total defense.

Graham played his college football at West Virginia as a walk-on receiver in 2001. Following an injury, Graham moved to the sidelines as a student assistant coach for the Mountaineers in 2002 before transferring to Tulsa. He earned his degree in exercise sports science with a minor in marketing from Tulsa in 2006.

HORACE RAYMOND DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL INITIATIVES

Horace Raymond enters his seventh year as Director of Football Initiatives after working in a mentoring/tutorial capacity on Jean Boyd's academic staff for two years. He also served as assistant to the Director of Football Operations during the 2005 season.

Raymond will work to ensure the continual development of student-athletes on the Sun Devil football team. He will manage player community service programs; serve as a liaison between several ASU affiliates; coordinate transition programming for football student-athletes; oversee the summer and post-graduation jobs program; assist with all team functions, including game day operations.

Raymond graduated from Tulane University in 1998, earning a bachelor's degree in Sports Management/Business Studies while competing as a running back on the football team. He later earned his MBA degree from the University of Phoenix, where he worked in various academic capacities over a three-year period.

Raymond and his wife Ashly have three kids, Kyan (10) , Marlee (6) and Sloan (3)

RUDY BURGESS MANAGEMENT INTERN FOR FOOTBALL

Burgess will joined the staff as the Management Intern for Football in February 2012 and returns to ASU after a short professional stint where he saw time in the Arena Football League, CFL and the NFL. Burgess was one of the most versatile athletes in ASU history, having played wide receiver, tailback, cornerback, kickoff and punt returner and also throwing a touchdown pass during his Sun Devil career.

Burgess became one of only 14 players in FBS history to record over 1,000 yards in the rushing, receiving and return categories. He accumulated 4,379 all-purpose yards as a Sun Devil with 19 total touchdowns and was the ultimate team player and would do anything the coaches asked of him, including changing his position three times.

The 2007 alumnus most recently competed on the Arizona Rattlers in the Arena Football League as a wide receiver, but saw time on the practice squads of several NFL teams and the CFL Edmonton Eskimos during his professional playing career.

SHAWN GRISWOLD DIRECTOR OF STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

Shawn Griswold will enter his first season as the Arizona State University Director of Strength & Conditioning. Griswold comes to ASU from the University of Pittsburgh, where he was one of Sun Devil head football coach Todd Graham's first hires upon taking over that program. Graham has called Griswold "the best strength and conditioning coach in America".

Prior to joining the Pitt staff, Griswold spent three seasons as the Director of Strength and Conditioning at Tulsa under Graham. Griswold's efforts were instrumental in helping Tulsa field one of the country's most explosive teams over the past decade. The highly conditioned Golden Hurricane averaged nearly 80 plays a game in 2010, ranking fifth nationally in total offense, sixth in scoring and 15th in rushing yards. Tulsa's mentally tough defense ranked third in turnovers forced.

Griswold had two stints at Tulsa (2004-06 and 2008-10) as Director of Strength and Conditioning. During thattime the Golden Hurricane earned four bowl berths and captured the 2005 Conference USA championship. In addition to working with the football team, he also had oversight of the entire strength and conditioning program for Tulsa athletics. He spent the 2007 season in Louisville as an Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach for the Cardinals.

Prior to Tulsa, Griswold spent five years as Head Strength and Conditioning Coordinator at his alma mater, UtahState. He oversaw the athletic development for 16 varsity sports and was directly responsible for designing the strength and conditioning programs for football, basketball and volleyball.

A former football student-athlete at USU, Griswold's career began as a graduate assistant coach for the Aggies before he was promoted to Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coordinator.

Griswold earned both his bachelor's and master's degrees from Utah State. He received a bachelor's degree in exercise science in 1996 and a masters of science degree in 1998.

JOSH STORMS ASSISTANT HEAD STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH

Josh Storms is in his seventh year on the Sports Performance staff at Arizona State. In his role, Storms serves as the lead assistant to Head Sports Performance Coach Shawn Griswold in the physical development of the football team. In addition to his football duties, Storms also oversees the Sports Performance programs for track & field and wrestling. Before arriving at ASU in January of 2005, Storms was an assistant strength coach at the University of Nevada-Las Vegas for more than two years, where in addition to assisting with football team, he worked with the Rebel track and field, men's soccer and men's and women's tennis teams. Prior to his time at UNLV he was a seasonal assistant strength and conditioning coach with the Minnesota Vikings in 2001. Storms graduated from the University of South Dakota (2001) where he played tight end, and completed his Masters degree at ASU in 2006. Storms is married to Darcie, his wife of nine years.

TONY OLLISON SR. ASSISTANT STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH

Ollison comes to Arizona State University after spending the last eleven years with the Cowboys strength and conditioning department. He will work primarily with the Sun Devil football team. Prior to his time in Dallas, Ollison was the assistant strength and conditioning coach at the University of Arkansas from 1998 until 2000. He started his career in the weight room as a graduate assistant at Arkansas in 1993. He was a graduate assistant in the University of Tennessee weight room in 1994 before serving as the Volunteers assistant strength and conditioning coach from 1995-97 while finishing his masters in sports administration. Ollison played defensive tackle for Arkansas (1986-90), totaling 63 career tackles despite missing all but one game his senior season. He played on two Southwest Conference championship teams and four bowl games while earning his degree

CHRIS DESROSIERS ASSISTANT STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH

Chris enters his first year at Arizona State University as a Sports Performance Coaching Assistant where he assists with the Sun Devil football program and is personally responsible for the Swimming and Diving, Water Polo and Women's Golf Programs. Chris earned his undergraduate degree from Springfield College in Applied Exercise Science (2008). During his undergraduate term he interned with several schools throughout the north-east including the University of Maine, University of Massachusetts, College of the Holy Cross, and also spent time with the NFL's Buffalo Bills. He then moved on to become a graduate assistant at Florida State University where he earned a masters degree in Sports Administration (2010). While at Florida State, Chris worked with several teams including football, swimming and diving, track and field, baseball, softball, tennis, volleyball and golf. Chris then joined the Florida State Football strength staff for the 2010 season. Chris holds certifications with USA weightlifting and the National Strength and Conditioning Association.

BRETT NENABER GRADUATE ASSISTANT

Brett enters his second year as a graduate assistant on the Sports Performance staff at Arizona State University. Brett earned his B.S. in Business and Communications from ASU (2007) where he was a member of the Sun Devil Football team for four seasons. After finishing his career at ASU, Brett spent two years on the Red Bull Race team where he was a pit crew member for the NASCAR Sprint Cup Series, Nationwide Series, and Craftsman Truck series. ARIZONA STATE

ARIZONA STATE UNIVERSITY

Arizona State University has developed a new model for the American research university, creating an institution that is committed to excellence, access and impact. ASU pursues research that contributes to the public good and assumes major responsibility for the economic, social and cultural vitality of the communities that surround it. ASU is a New American University.

More than 72,000 students call themselves Sun Devils, inhabiting four campuses across the Phoenix metropolitan area that offer outstanding resources for research and academics; libraries and museums that carry significant collections; studios and performing arts spaces for creative endeavor; and unsurpassed, state-of-the-art scientific and technological laboratories and research facilities. ASU's largest community is concentrated on ASU's historic Tempe campus, which offers the feel of a college town in the midst of eclectic downtown Tempe. A cultural focal point of the Northwest Valley, the West campus is home to a growing community of education and liberal arts students and professionals. ASU's Polytechnic campus, located in the heart of the booming East Valley, is at the center of major industry partnerships in aerospace innovation and science and technology research. The Downtown Phoenix campus, which opened in the fall of 2006 as part of a larger plan to revitalize the downtown area, offers unparalleled access to the professional and cultural opportunities in Arizona's capital and urban hub.

ASU ACADEMIC PROGRAMS RANKED IN TOP 25 IN THE NATION

Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law is the eighth-highest ranked public law school for graduate programs in the United States, and is ranked 26th among both public and private law schools.

Mary Lou Fulton Teachers College ranks 16th among public graduate schools of education and 26th among public and private graduate programs.

W. P. Carey School of Business is one of the top five business graduate schools in the West. It is ranked 30th for its full-time MBA program, and also offers competitive programs in supply chain management, now ranked fifth, and information systems, ranked 13th. The school's part-time evening program is ranked 21st nationwide.

College of Public Programs' criminology program ranks 12th nationwide and the college's School of Public Affairs ranks 16th overall for graduate programs. Programs within the School of Public Affairs rank in the top 20 nationally: city management and urban policy program, ranked second; environmental policy and management, ranked 10th; nonprofit management, ranked 15th; public finance and budgeting, ranked 16th; and public management administration, ranked 19th.

ASU School of Art, in the Herberger Institute for Design and the Arts, ranks 22nd for its graduate programs, with specialties in printmaking, ranked fifth; ceramics, ranked seventh; and photography, ranked 11th.

College of Liberal Arts and Sciences earth sciences program ranks 17th nationwide.

ARIZONA STATE ACADEMIC FACTS

- Enrollment for the Fall 2011 semester was 72,250 students, including 13,850 graduate students, 9,300 first-time freshman students, 6,800 transfer students, and a record 14,700 out-of-state and international undergraduate students.
- ASU students have more than 250 majors and more than 12,000 classes from which to choose on four campuses – Tempe campus, Downtown Phoenix campus, West campus and Polytechnic campus – in the Phoenix-area.
- ASU is home to 612 National Merit Scholars and 324 National Hispanic Scholars.
- ASU was ranked in the top tier of national universities for the fifth consecutive year by U.S. News and World Report in 2011. This year, U.S. News and World Report chose ASU as “a school to watch” and listed ASU among their “2012 Up-and-Comers,” part of their 2012 Best Colleges guidebook.
- This year, U.S. News and World Report ranked ASU's graduate programs among the best in the nation, as part of their “2013 Best Graduate Schools” ranking. Graduate programs in business, law, education, public affairs and fine arts at ASU all ranked in the top 10 or top 25.
- Since the NCAA announced its annual Academic Progress Rate in 2003-2004, ASU's average score has increased each year, culminating in the highest ranking ever for the school with 987 in 2012. This year, three of ASU's athletic teams' scores ranked in the top 10 percent nationwide.

PRESIDENT / REGENTS

Michael M. Crow became the 16th president of Arizona State University on July 1, 2002. He is guiding the transformation of ASU into one of the nation's leading public metropolitan research universities, one that is directly engaged in the economic, social, and cultural vitality of its region.

Under his direction the university pursues teaching, research and creative excellence focused on the major challenges and questions of our time, as well as those central to the building of a sustainable environment and economy for Arizona. He has committed the university to global engagement, and to setting a new standard for public service.

Since he took office, ASU has marked a number of important milestones, including the establishment of major interdisciplinary research initiatives such as the Biodesign Institute; the Global Institute for Sustainability; and MacroTechnology Works, a program integrating science and technology for large-scale applications, including the Flexible Display Center, a cooperative agreement with the U.S. Army.

Under his direction ASU has initiated a dramatic research infrastructure expansion to create more than one million square feet of new research space, and has announced naming gifts endowing the W. P. Carey School of Business, Ira A. Fulton Schools of Engineering, and the Virginia G. Piper Center for Creative Writing. The university has also named the Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law.

In 2007, ASU established the nation's first School of Sustainability. The school, part of the Global Institute of Sustainability, addresses some of the most critical challenges of our time, with a specific focus on creating solutions for future generations.

Prior to joining ASU, he was executive vice provost of Columbia University, where he also was professor of science and technology policy in the School of International and Public Affairs. As chief strategist of Columbia's research enterprise, he led technology and innovation transfer operations, establishing Columbia Innovation Enterprises (now Science and Technology Ventures), the Strategic Initiative Program, and the Columbia Digital Media Initiative, as well as advancing interdisciplinary program development.

He helped found the Center for Science, Policy, and Outcomes (CSPO) in Washington, D.C., a think tank dedicated to linking science and technology to desired social, economic, and environmental outcomes.

In 2003 CSPO was reestablished at ASU as the Consortium for Science, Policy, and Outcomes.

A fellow of the National Academy of Public Administration, he is the author of books and articles relating to the analysis of research organizations, technology transfer, science and technology policy, and the practice and theory of public policy.

Steve Patterson was named Arizona State University's Vice President for University Athletics and Athletics Director on March 28, 2012.

"In his time at ASU Steve Patterson has shown a level of sports management expertise rarely seen at the college and university level," said President Michael M. Crow. "He is the ideal person to build on the foundation and to take Sun Devil sports to the next level - to the highest level."

Prior to his current role as Athletics Director, Patterson served as Chief Operating Officer for Sun Devil Athletics and Managing Director of Sun Devil Sports Group. In that capacity, Patterson was responsible for all ASU Athletic Department business operations, development, and operation of current and new sports facilities. As the Sun Devil Athletic Department continues to grow and expand, Patterson will be at the forefront of many significant capital projects including renovating football stadium, the under construction new ballpark in Mesa and the creation of a 425 acre Sports Facilities District adjacent to the University in downtown Tempe.

Aside from his day-to-day responsibilities, Patterson will continue to enhance the Sun Devil mission, which consists of graduating student athletes, winning championships and playing by the rules.

Before coming to Arizona State, Patterson served as president of Pro Sports Consulting, which provides services to companies, government entities, universities and individuals that operate or seek to acquire sports properties, to design, finance, build and operate sports facilities and to maximize the revenue in these and related companies.

Patterson spent nearly a quarter of a century as an innovative and successful executive in the NFL with the Houston Texans, in the NBA with the Houston Rockets and Portland Trail Blazers, and in professional hockey with the Houston Aeros. He has built championship teams and designed, financed, built and run stadiums and arenas.

As President of the Portland Trail Blazers, The Rose Garden and Rose City Radio from 2003-07, Patterson was responsible for all business and basketball operations for the team and arena, as well as local media outlets. He refined his skills as a turnaround specialist, while garnering national recognition for his player acquisition skills when he took over the team's General Manager duties. Patterson engineered a record six draft day trades that resulted in the selection of NBA Rookie of the Year and three time NBA All Star Brandon Roy and fellow All Rookie 1st team, NBA All Star and All NBA member LaMarcus Aldridge. Patterson also revamped the entire basketball operation, hiring then GM Kevin Pritchard and former Head Coach Nate McMillan.

From 1997-2003, Patterson served as the Senior Vice President and Chief Development Officer of the Houston Texans NFL franchise where he led Bob McNair's successful effort to acquire a National Football League franchise and Super Bowl XXXVIII for Houston, Texas. Patterson was responsible for the establishment of the team's business, legal, media and political operations, as well as the development, design, finance and construction of Reliant Stadium.

Prior to joining the Texans, Patterson was the President, General Manager and Governor of the Houston Aeros hockey team. For his efforts, he was named the 1995 winner of the Andy Mulligan Trophy as the IHL's Executive of the Year. In addition to his roles with the Aeros, Patterson also acquired and served as President and Partner in Arena Operating Company, which managed and operated Compaq Center, Houston's home of the Rockets, Aeros and Comets. He coordinated the six-year, $7.5 million naming rights and sponsorship deal with the Compaq Computer Corporation and the $5 million renovation of the arena.

As General Manager of the Houston Rockets from 1989-93, he was the primary architect of the 1993-1994 Houston Rockets squad that captured the first NBA World Championship in franchise history signing or trading for all the team's players and coaches. Patterson also led the club's successful bid to host the 1989 NBA All-Star Game, which held the all-time attendance record of 44,735 for 21 years.

Born and raised in Beaver Dam, WI. Patterson attended the University of Texas, graduating with honors earning a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration in 1980. He graduated from UT's Law School in 1984.

Craig Newsome played two seasons (1993 and '94) at Arizona State before the Green Bay Packers drafted him with the 32nd pick in the 1995 NFL Draft. He was the starting cornerback on the 1996 Packers championship team and helped them hoist the Lombardi Trophy after collecting a forced fumble and interception in Super Bowl XXXI.

RANKINGS AND STREAKS

ASU IN THE PRESEASON RANKINGS

Since the AP began a preseason poll, ASU has been ranked 19 times to begin the year. The Sun Devils were tabbed No. 3 in 1976, behind Nebraska and Michigan. Of the 21 times ASU has appeared in the AP preseason poll, 1976 and 1998 are the only times the Sun Devils were in the top 10.

ASU IN THE FINAL POLLS

Arizona State has been ranked nationally at season's end 17 times. The Sun Devils' highest ranking came in 1975 when they finished second nationally in both major polls (Associated Press-media, United Press International-coaches) behind national champion Oklahoma.

ASU's 10-1-1 team of 1986, which completed its Pac-10 title season by defeating Michigan 22-15 in the Rose Bowl, was ranked fourth and fifth nationally by AP and UPI, respectively. In 1996, ASU completed an undefeated (11-0) regular season before losing to Ohio State in the Rose Bowl, finishing ranked fourth in both major polls.

Here are ASU's final national rankings:

2007 HOLIDAY BOWL

Texas 52, Arizona State 34
December 27 • San Diego Qualcomm Stadium • Attendance: 64,020

Despite possessing a come-from-behind ability that was demonstrated time and again throughout the 2007 season, a 21-point first quarter deficit would prove to be too much for Arizona State to overcome as the No. 19 Texas Longhorns defeated the No. 11 Sun Devils 52-34 in the 2007 Holiday Bowl. The Longhorns scored touchdowns on three of their first five possessions to take a 21-0 lead late in the first quarter. Chris McGaha's first touchdown reception of the season, a seven-yard toss from Rudy Carpenter, got the Sun Devils on the scoreboard early in the second quarter, cutting Texas' lead to 21-7. Texas would build its lead back up to 21 when Longhorn QB Colt McCoy took it in from nine yards out. A 32-yard field goal by Lou Groza Award winner Thomas Webber reduced Texas' lead to 28-10 at the intermission. Weber would connect on another field goal early in the third quarter, this one from 46 yards, to bring the Sun Devils within 15 points, 28-13. The remainder of the third quarter would see the teams exchange touchdowns before a 10-point flurry by the Longhorns early in the fourth quarter would put the game out of reach for ASU. With ASU facing an all-but-insurmountable deficit, Danny Sullivan was inserted at quarterback for the remainder of the game. The Los Gatos, Calif. native performed admirably (7-14-118 yds, 1 TD, 1 INT), leading the Sun Devils on a pair of touchdown drives to get them within 11 points, 45-34, with 3:42 left in the game. After an unsuccessful onside kick attempt, Texas RB Jamaal Charles, who ran for 161 yards, closed out the scoring with a 32-yard scoring run. Before leaving the game, Carpenter threw for 187 yards and a pair of touchdowns. Dimitri Nance (18 att, 48 yards) led the Sun Devils rushing attack while McGaha tied his career best with a game-high nine receptions for 79 yards. Mike Jones led all receivers on the field with 107 yards (eight receptions) and two touchdowns.

2006 HAWAII BOWL

Hawai'i 41, Arizona State 24
December 24 • Honolulu Aloha Stadium • Attendance: 40,623

The fifth edition of the Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl went to the Hawai'i Warriors as they beat ASU 41-24 at Aloha Stadium. Despite holding the nation's top-ranked offense to only three points in the first half, the Sun Devils could not shut down the Warriors in the second half. The first half was not what many expected from two high-scoring teams, as Arizona State used time consuming drives and attacking defense to hold off the Hawai'i offense for most of the first 30 minutes. A 44-yard Jesse Ainsworth field goal opened the scoring near the end of the first quarter, but Hawai'i tied the game at three in the opening minutes of the second. Rudy Carpenter gave the Devils a 10-3 halftime lead when he found wide out Brandon Smith in the end zone from 37-yards out for the touchdown. Hawai'i quarterback Colt Brennan found his rhythm in the second half, as Hawai'i scored 24 straight points before Ryan Torain found the goal line to cut the lead to 27-17. ASU would close to within three when Carpenter hooked up with Michael Jones from four yards away, but Brennan and the Warriors scored the game's final 14 points to pull away for the 41-24 victory. Rudy Carpenter had two touchdown tosses and Ryan Torain ran for 160 yards and a score, but it wasn't enough as Warriors QB Colt Brennan threw five touchdown passes to lead Hawai'i to the victory.

2005 INSIGHT BOWL

Arizona State 45, Rutgers 40
December 27 • Phoenix Chase Field
Attendance: 43,536

Led by quarterback Rudy Carpenter, who threw for 467 yards and four scores, Arizona State rolled up an Insight Bowl record 678 yards in total offense on its way to a 45-40 win over Rutgers. Carpenter, a redshirt freshman who took over for injured Sam Keller eight games into the season, completed 23-of-35 passes with no interceptions to earn Most Valuable Offensive Player honors. After trailing for much of the game, ASU took its first lead, 31-27, with 6:37 left in the third quarter following Carpenter's 22-yard touchdown pass to Terry Richardson. The Scarlet Knights, who played ASU in their only other bowl appearance in 1978, recaptured the lead, 33-31, after Jeremy Ito's 48-yard field goal with 12:56 to play. However no sooner was it that the Sun Devils would take the lead for good after Carpenter threw a 42-yard touchdown pass to Matt Miller. Combined with a successful two-point conversion ASU led 39-33 with 10 minutes left. It was the second time in the game that Carpenter and Miller connected for a score after the two teamed up for a 43-yard touchdown in the first quarter to tie the game at 7-7. Miller had a game-high 135 yards receiving on five receptions. ASU would extend its lead after sophomore running back Rudy Burgess, who had 103 yards rushing on 16 carries, culminated a 69-yard drive with a four-yard run to give ASU a 45-33 lead with 4:26 remaining. A 29-yard touchdown pass from Ryan Hart to Tres Moses with two minutes left made the final score 45-40. Hart led the Scarlet Knights with 374 yards passing and three touchdown passes while Moses had a game-high seven receptions for 113 yards. Also providing a spark to the Rutgers offense was running back Ray Rice, who had 108 yards rushing. Rutgers took the opening kickoff and went 80 yards in eight plays to take an early 7-0 lead after Hart found Clark Harris for a one-yard score. The Scarlet Knights would lead by as many as 14 in the first half after a three-yard touchdown run by Brian Leonard gave Rutgers a 24-10 lead. The Sun Devils would get to within a touchdown before halftime after Carpenter led ASU on an 80-yard touchdown drive. Zach Miller's one-yard touchdown reception cut the lead in half, 24-17, with 39 seconds left in the half. The two teams combined to break several records including most total net yards (1,211), most net yards passing (841) and most first downs (57). Combined with its 27-23 win over Purdue in the Sun Bowl one year earlier, the 45-40 win over Rutgers gave ASU its first back-to-back bowl victories in nearly 20 years.

2004 SUN BOWL

Arizona State 27, Purdue 23
December 31 • El Paso, Texas Sun Bowl Stadium • Attendance: 51,288

Arizona State and Purdue made up for a slow start in the 71st Vitis Sun Bowl by combining for 45 second-half points and a spectacular finish in front of the largest crowd (51,288) in the history of El Paso's bowl game. Sun Devil running back Rudy Burgess scored on a 19-yard screen pass from Sun Bowl MVP Sam Keller with 43 seconds remaining to give ASU a 27-23 come-from-behind victory over heavily-favored Purdue. "Nobody gave us a chance," said ASU head coach Dirk Koetter, whose team played without its starting quarterback, running back and safety. "I'm proud of the way we came back, time and time again." ASU, which finished the season 9-3 and ranked No. 19, led 3-2 after an uneventful first half. But the Sun Devils overcame deficits three times in an action-packed second half, including twice in the final quarter thanks to a pair of touchdown passes by Keller, making his first career start (for the injured Andrew Walter). Keller completed 25 of 45 passes for 370 yards and three touchdowns with no interceptions. A 22-yard field goal by Jesse Ainsworth gave ASU a 3-0 lead with 2:35 to play in the first quarter. Purdue scored a safety in the second quarter. The Boilermakers scored on the first play from scrimmage to open the second half to make the score 9-3. ASU answered quickly when Keller hit wideout Derek Hagan with a 27-yard touchdown strike to retake the lead, 10-9 five minutes into the third quarter. Less than a minute into the fourth, Purdue's Kyle Orton found Taylor Stubblefield with a five-yard touchdown pass to give Purdue a 16-10 advantage. A 34-yard field goal from Ainsworth cut the lead to three points with 10:33 remaining and Burgess gave ASU back the lead when he broke free on a 41-yard screen play for a touchdown with 6:23 to go. A punt block by Purdue allowed the Boilers to score on a six-yard touchdown pass from Orton to Charles Davis, giving them a 23-20 lead with 1:14 left to play. But Keller marched ASU down the field in four plays, capping the drive with his second fourth-quarter screen pass to Burgess for a touchdown to give the Sun Devils their first bowl victory since the 1997 Sun Bowl. "(Burgess) did all the work (on the game-winning touchdown play)," said Keller, who thought his teammate should have at least shared the MVP trophy. "Maybe there needs to be a plate on there that says, 'Thank you Rudy.'"

2002 HOLIDAY BOWL

Kansas State 34, Arizona State 27
December 27, 2002 • San Diego, Calif.
Qualcomm Stadium • Attendance: 58,717

The Sun Devils traveled to San Diego for the Holiday Bowl as the biggest underdogs of the bowl season against the No. 6 Kansas State Wildcats. Although they were facing the best defense in the country, the Sun Devils never trailed until the final 75 seconds of the contest. The first quarter featured no scoring and to the surprise of almost 60,000 in Qualcomm Stadium and a national television audience, the Wildcats started the second quarter with a total of minus-five yards rushing and had not advanced the ball past their own 33-yard line. The Sun Devils' following possession began what would be their second of six consecutive drives to start in Wildcat territory and ASU scored on a six-yard TD pass to Justin Taplin from Walter. Linebacker Mason Unck forced KSU quarterback Ell Roberson to fumble on the Wildcats' next possession, which led to a Mike Barth field goal to put ASU up 10-0. Darren Sproles finally got K-State its first points as he scampered 41 yards for a score on the next Wildcat drive, making the score 10-7. The exact same sequence of ASU TD, KSU fumble, ASU field goal, KSU TD would occur again before halftime, with the score being 20-14 at the break. The flow of the second half would mirror the first; a scoreless third quarter and a wild final period with Roberson leading off the fourth quarter with a three-yard TD run to leave the game tied after the extra point was fumbled. The Sun Devils had an immediate reply with a perfectly executed scoring drive as Walter threw a 10-yard touchdown pass to running back Mike Williams, giving the Sun Devils a 27-20 lead with 10:30 remaining. But another Roberson touchdown and a Derrick Evans score gave the Wildcats the 34-27 victory as the game was nearing its end. ASU defensive end Terrell Suggs sacked Roberson twice to extend his NCAA sack record to 24 on the year and was named the Defensive Player of the Game.

2000 ALOHA BOWL

Boston College 31, Arizona State 17
December 25 • Honolulu, Hawaii
Aloha Stadium • Attendance: 24,397

After an emotional pregame speech on Christmas Day, Arizona State head coach Bruce Snyder made his last run onto the field with his Sun Devils. But, hoping for a pleasant Christmas gift in the warm tropics, ASU fell short in its second consecutive Aloha Bowl, losing to Boston College 31-17. The Devils jumped out early in the first quarter on a 14-yard burst by Tom Pace on the second play from scrimmage. However, less than two minutes later, Boston College quarterback Tim Hasselbeck got loose for a 52-yard scramble that set up an Eagle score from 10 yards out to tie the game. On the ensuing ASU drive, quarterback Jeff Krohn fumbled after being sacked, and Boston College's Derric Rossy picked up the loose ball at the Sun Devils' 19 yard-line. Boston College had to settle for a Mike Sutphin 50-yard field goal to leave ASU trailing, 10-7. Early in the second quarter, Krohn found Pace and wide receiver Richard Williams open on several key passing plays that resulted in Mike Barth's 28-yard field goal to even up the score again. The rest of the quarter would remain quiet, and both teams went in at halftime knotted at 10-10. Boston College stole the third quarter, scoring two touchdowns and keeping the Devils from getting any offensive power generated. Eagles quarterback Tim Hasselbeck hooked up with wide out Dedrick Dewalt for a 58-yard passing score and flanker Ryan Read for a 40-yard score to put the Eagles up by two touchdowns. Boston College added another seven points early in the fourth quarter and the Sun Devils were able to score late in the fourth quarter after quarterback Matt Cooper connected with Ryan Dennard for a 31-yard scoring grab.

1999 ALOHA BOWL

Wake Forest 23, Arizona State 3
December 25 • Honolulu, Hawaii
Aloha Stadium • Attendance: 40,974

Christmas in paradise turned out to be anything but merry for Arizona State, which fell to Wake Forest 23-3 in the Aloha Bowl. The Aloha Bowl was a tale of two halves, with the first playing itself out as a defensive struggle. Each team could only muster one field goal, with the Demon Deacons' Mike Burdick scoring at the 8:18 mark of the first quarter and Mike Barth putting one through the uprights with 11:22 remaining in the second. After halftime ASU, forced three-and-out on its first possession of the half, had the ensuing punt by Nick Murphy blocked by the Deacons and downed at their own 36. Burdick chipped in a 24-yarder on the following possession. The ASU offense then appeared to receive its wake up call when J.R. Redmond powered his way for 38 yards on a critical third-and-three situation to advance the ball to midfield. On the next play reserve tailback Gerald Green would scamper for another 15 yards. However the drive stalled and Barth then missed a 42-yard field goal attempt which would have knotted the score at six. The Demon Deacons took over at their own 24 and four plays later, Ben Sankey connected with receiver Jimmy Caldwell for a

1997 SUN BOWL

 Arizona State 17, Iowa 7
December 31 • El Paso, Texas
Sun Bowl Stadium • Attendance: 49,104

After missing the 1997 Rose Bowl, off-injured tailback Michael Martin capped his career at ASU with a heroic curtain call and led ASU to a 17-7 win over Iowa. Martin carried the ball 27 times for 169 yards, including a third-quarter touchdown that gave the Sun Devils a 17-0 lead. Martin's MVP performance eased the pressure off backup quarterback Steve Campbell, who put ASU on the scoreboard with a 35-yard strike to Lenzie Jackson in the second quarter. Campbell completed five passes for 109 yards. Just before halftime, Robert Nycz kicked a 20-yard field goal to give the Sun Devils a 10-0 lead. The 10-point spot was all the Sun Devils defense needed, slamming the door on Iowa's offense. Jeremy Staat was the defensive standout for the Sun Devils with three sacks. Defensive lineman Quincy Yancy recorded a seven-yard sack and another tackle for a loss of a yard. Hamilton Mee and Pat Tillman also found their way to the quarterback. This Sun Bowl appearance marked the first time in 10 years that ASU played bowl games in consecutive seasons.

1997 ROSE BOWL

 Ohio State 20, Arizona State 17
January 1, 1997 • Pasadena, Calif.
The Rose Bowl • Attendance: 100,635

Arizona State quarterback Jake "The Snake" Plummer scored on a dramatic 11-yard touchdown run with 1:40 left in the game to give ASU a 17-14 lead, only to see Ohio State drive 65 yards in 12 plays and score the winning touchdown with :19 remaining, giving the Buckeyes a 20-17 victory. The game was one of the most exciting Rose Bowl games in history and one of the most exciting college football games seen in a while. Plummer, who finished third in the Heisman Trophy balloting, completed 19 of 35 passes for 201 yards and one touchdown in the game. The touchdown pass was a spectacular 25-yard strike to wide receiver Ricky Boyer, which tied the score at seven at 10:04 in the second quarter. Ohio State had scored first in the opening stanza on a nine-yard pass from quarterback Stanley Jackson to David Boston. The game remained deadlocked at halftime and with 9:12 left in the third quarter, ASU's Robert Nycz nailed a 37-yard field goal, giving the Sun Devils their first lead, 10-7. OSU quarterback Joe Germaine wasted no time in hitting wideout Demetrious Stanley on a 72-yard scoring strike with 8:23 left in the third. Ohio State led 14-10. The game remained scoreless until the final 1:40 when Plummer and Germaine performed their heroics. The 1997 Bowl game was the most-watched college bowl game of the season, earning an 18.2 overnight rating (31 share), a full point ahead of the Florida-Florida State Sugar Bowl (17.2/25), which determined the national championship. ASU wide receiver Lenzie Jackson caught five passes for 71 yards while teammate Derek Smith tallied a game-high 18 tackles from his inside linebacking position. He added two quarterback sacks and deflected one pass.

1987 FREEDOM BOWL

 Arizona State 33, Air Force 28
December 30 • Anaheim, Calif.
Anaheim Stadium • Attendance: 33,261

Arizona State won its second bowl game in a row, including its fourth in the last five tries, defeating Air Force, 33-28, in the Freedom Bowl. The Devils used Daniel Ford's best game (16 of 30 for 272 yards and one touchdown) and the timely running of senior backs Darryl Harris (93 yards) and Channing Williams (66 yards) to outscore the Falcons. Air Force's Greg Johnson scored from 12 yards out with 9:42 gone in the first quarter to stake the Falcons to a 7-0 lead. ASU opened the second quarter with a pair of two-yard touchdown runs by Williams (:03 and Harris (3:05). Placekicker Alan Zendejas' 36-yard field goal with 10:43 gone in the second stanza gave ASU a comfortable 17-7 lead. Before the half ended, Air Force added a touchdown while ASU scored on the ensuing drive on a 61-yard pass from Ford to Aaron Cox. In the second half, Zendejas added a 20-yard field goal, giving ASU a 27-14 lead. The Devils' scoring was capped by full-back Kirk Wendorf's 20-yard scamper to paydirt with 5:16 gone in the fourth quarter. Air Force made it interesting with two late touchdowns against ASU's reserves, making the score 33-28 with 10 seconds to play. Cox caught four aeriels for 110 yards and one touchdown. He also had one score called back because of a penalty. Freshmen Drew Metcalf and Eric Crawford each collected one interception for the evening.

1987 ROSE BOWL

 Arizona State 22, Michigan 15
January 1 • Pasadena, Calif.
The Rose Bowl • Attendance: 103,168

Arizona State held Michigan scoreless in the second half and defeated the Wolverines 22-15 in ASU's first Rose Bowl appearance. Quarterback Jeff Van Raaphorst outdueled his more fabled opponent, Michigan's Jim Harbaugh, and threw two touchdown passes to flanker Bruce Hill, the second of which gave ASU its first lead, 19-15, in the third quarter. Van Raaphorst had hooked up with Hill in the second period on a 4-yard scoring strike just before halftime that got ASU within two points at 15-13. Michigan put a scare into the Sun Devils, taking a 15-3 lead less than six minutes into the second quarter. Michigan took the opening kickoff and drove 66 yards in five minutes for the game's first score, an 18-yard run by tailback Jamie Morris. A two-point conversion gave the Wolverines an 8-0 lead. ASU countered with a 37-yard Kent Bostrom field goal early in the second quarter, one of three in the game for Bostrom, tying a Rose Bowl record. ASU dominated the second half, becoming one of the very few teams to hold Michigan without second half points in the past three seasons. While the Sun Devils were piling up 11 first downs and 166 yards of total offense, ASU's defense was holding Michigan to four first downs and 76 yards, including a net rushing total of minus-5 yards. ASU took the second half kickoff and drove 80 yards in 12 plays, culminating with Van Raaphorst's one-yard toss to Hill for the go-ahead score. Hill's spectacular catch at the back of the end zone tied a Rose Bowl record for most TD passes caught in a game with two. ASU then tacked on another Bostrom field goal, a 25-yarder at the beginning of the fourth quarter. Van Raaphorst was named the game's most valuable offensive player, as he completed 16 of 30 passes for 193 yards and two scores with no interceptions. Tailback Darryl Harris led all rushers with 109 yards on 23 carries, while fullback Channing Williams had 69 yards for ASU. ASU defenders frustrated Harbaugh, holding the nation's top-rated passer to 13 completions and 172 yards, and ASU intercepted Harbaugh twice, including a theft by safety Robby Boyd that iced the game late in the fourth quarter.

1985 HOLIDAY BOWL

Arkansas 18, Arizona State 17
December 22 • San Diego, Calif.
Jack Murphy Stadium • Attendance: 50,641

Arkansas survived a last-second scare by Arizona State and defeated the Sun Devils 18-17 in a thriller at Jack Murphy Stadium. Placekicker Kent Bostrom, who had kicked field goals of 47, 22, and 28 yards, missed a 59-yard attempt with time running out to secure the Razorback win. In the seesaw battle, Arkansas had scored with 23 seconds remaining on a Kendall Trainor 37-yard field goal to stake an 18-17 lead. It was the first Arkansas lead since it led 7-3 in the first quarter. Senior tailback Darryl Clack, playing in his final game as a Sun Devil, returned Trainor's ensuing kickoff 37 yards to the 37-yard line. With time ticking away, quarterback Jeff Van Raaphorst hit split end Aaron Cox for 21 yards and a first down at the Arkansas 42. Van Raaphorst passed again, this time to receiver Paul Day. But Day could not hang on at the 22-yard line on a nice play by roverback Odis Lloyd of Arkansas, setting up Bostrom's three-point try. Arizona State scored its only touchdown on a 16-yard pass from Van Raaphorst to Cox just before the half. Van Raaphorst finished the game with 167 yards and one touchdown on 14 of 27 passing. Tailback Mike Crawford, who was the holder on the field goal try, rushed for 103 yards on 18 carries. ASU inside linebacker Greg Battle earned the game's most valuable defender award.

1983 FIESTA BOWL

Arizona State 32, Oklahoma 21
January 1 • Tempe, Ariz.
Sun Devil Stadium • Attendance: 70,553

Arizona State came off NCAA probation with a resounding 32-21 victory over Oklahoma its first major network television appearance since 1980. The Sooners led 7-0 after one quarter before the Devils scored the game's next eight points. Two Luis Zendejas field goals and a safety gave the Sun Devils a short-lived 8-7 advantage. Following an Oklahoma TD, Zendejas added his third three-pointer of the game, a record-setting 54-yarder as the halftime gun sounded, cutting Oklahoma's lead to 13-11. After alternating possessions for the first five minutes of the third stanza, Arizona State drove 43 yards on four plays, capped by a 15-yard run by Darryl Clack, to give the Devils an 18-13 lead. However, the Sooners engineered a drive of their own, followed by a successful two-point conversion that gave them a 21-18 lead after 45 minutes of play. Twenty-eight seconds into the final quarter, ASU's Alvin Moore scored from a yard out to give the Devils a 25-21 margin. On the Devil's next possession, QB Todd Hons, who threw for 329 yards in the game, connected with speedster Ron Brown on a 52-yard pass play for the game's final score. Hons was named offensive most valuable player for the Devils while defensive end Jim Jeffcoat received the same honor for the defense.

1978 GARDEN STATE BOWL

Arizona State 34, Rutgers 18
December 16 • East Rutherford, N.J.
The Meadowlands • Attendance: 33,402

Arizona State and Rutgers collided in the inaugural Garden State Bowl, with the Sun Devils taking a 34-18 win. The Sun Devils came from behind to score the victory after trailing 10-0 late in the second quarter. Arizona State got on the scoreboard with Mark

Malone's 26-yard pass to Robert Weathers to put ASU down by three at the half. In the second half Malone and the rest of the Sun Devils put it all together to score 21 straight points to take command of the game. Malone, who finished the game 13 of 31 for 268 yards, assisted in all five of the Sun Devil touchdowns as he threw for three TDs and rushed for the other two. In the third quarter, Malone passed to John Mistler for a 26-yard TD and then followed up with a 53-yard bomb to Chris DeFrance. In the fourth quarter Malone took it in himself on a one-yard run, and then scored on a four-yard run for his second TD of the afternoon. Sun Devil receiver John Mistler was named MVP for his efforts in catching seven passes for 148 yards.

1977 FIESTA BOWL

Penn State 42, Arizona State 30
December 25 • Tempe, Ariz.
Sun Devil Stadium • Attendance: 57,727

Arizona State failed in its attempt for a sixth straight bowl victory, falling to a powerful Nittany Lion squad by a 42-30 margin. Probably the biggest reason for the Devil demise was the 14 first quarter points ASU surrendered. But the Sun Devils came battling back from the deficit, scoring a pair of second quarter TDs on a pair of Dennis Sproul aeriels. Although A-State came back to only a 17-14 deficit at the half, the third quarter and the early going in the final frame was all Penn State. Down 31-14, the Devils never quit, giving the Fiesta Bowl record crowd and the national CBS television audience an exciting contest to the finish. Sproul hit Ron Washington to bring ASU to the short side of 31-21, and after a Matt Bahr field goal, ASU scored to pull within six at 34-28. But the Lions closed the door on a TD in the final minutes by Matt Suhey, while ASU scored its final points on a safety.

1975 FIESTA BOWL

Arizona State 17, Nebraska 14
December 26 • Tempe, Ariz.
Sun Devil Stadium • Attendance: 51,396

In one of the biggest wins in Arizona State football history, the Sun Devils outlasted co-Big 8 champ Nebraska to finish the season 12-0 and go on to finish second in both wire service final grid polls. Trailing 14-6 entering the final quarter, the Sun Devils scored an early fourth period TD on a 10-yard Fred Mortensen to John Jefferson pass. Mortensen then tossed to Larry Mucker for a two-point conversion to tie the game at 14. Late in the fourth quarter, ASU's Danny Kush booted a 29-yard field goal – his third of the day – to give the Devils a 17-14 lead. Nebraska began driving for a possible winning score in the waning moments of the game, but a Cornhusker fumble sealed the game for ASU. "From the players' standpoint, this was probably the most important game since I have been here," said Frank Kush. "Not only was the game important for the recognition this team will receive, but it also helps gain recognition for the great teams and players we have had here in the past."

1973 FIESTA BOWL

Arizona State 28, Pittsburgh 7
December 21 • Tempe, Ariz.
Sun Devil Stadium • Attendance: 50,878

Pitt scored a touchdown in the first minute of play, but only Arizona State scored during the remainder of the game as ASU won its third consecutive Fiesta Bowl. Danny White fumbled on the first snap of the game with Pitt recovering at the ASU 12. Tony Dorsett gained nine yards and then three for the touchdown to put the Panthers ahead. But ASU drove 73 yards in its next possession, with White's 51-yard pass to Greg Hudson setting up Woody Green's three-yard touchdown run. Danny Kush's 30-yard field goal with 1:29 remaining in the third quarter snapped a 7-7 deadlock. The Devils put the game away in the final period. White's 38-yard pass to Hudson completed an 80-yard scoring drive. Green ran 23 yards for a TD on the first play, following a partially blocked Pitt punt, and White's 50-yard pass to Owens set up a one-yard touchdown by Green. Green gained 131 yards on 25 carries, while Dorsett netted 100 yards on 30 carries.

Arizona State 45, Florida State 38
December 27 • Tempe, Ariz.
Sun Devil Stadium • Attendance: 51,809

The Sun Devils and Florida State's Seminoles combined to give the Fiesta Bowl the most spectacular opening game in collegiate bowl history. A contest of continual offensive one-upmanship, the two teams combined for 83 points - the most in modern bowl game history. Gary Huff's 25 of 46 for 347 yards with two TDs earned him the MVP award, but Huff came up short in leading the Seminoles to victory over Arizona State. Leading the way for the Sun Devils was quarterback Danny White (15 of 30 for 250 yards and two TDs). Woody Green (24 carries for 101 yards and three touchdowns) and Don Ekstrand (5 PATs and one 34-yard field goal). The Sun Devils scored on a 1-yard run by Green with only 34 seconds left in the contest for their final margin of victory.

1970 PEACH BOWL

Arizona State 48, North Carolina 26
December 30 • Atlanta, Ga.
Grant Field • Attendance: 52,126

The Sun Devils conquered a fine UNC team and a raging Atlanta blizzard to begin their march into the national collegiate grid limelight in the '70 Peach Bowl. It was the Sun Devil trademark of blazing speed that earned the victory for ASU, as J.D. Hill, Monroe Eley, Bob Thomas and Joe Spagnola led the way for Arizona State. The Sun Devils broke out to a 14-0 lead early in the second quarter, Carolina answered with 26 second quarter points to take a 26-21 halftime lead. The Devils offense continued to operate at peak efficiency in the second half, despite the raging snow storm that slowed the track. Also raging in the second half was the A-State defense, which held UNC all-America running back Don McCauley and the Tar Heels scoreless. "This game is going to mean a lot to us in the future," said Frank Kush, following the Sun Devil triumph. "I think that we've proven now that we can go on a football field with anyone in the nation."

1950 SALAD BOWL

Xavier 33, Arizona State 21
January 2 • Phoenix, Ariz. • Montgomery Stadium • Attendance: 18,500

Wilford "Whizzer" White scored twice and Cecil Coleman once, but Xavier University of Cincinnati had too much brawn for the light Sun Devils. The score was tied at 14-14 in the third quarter, but Xavier pushed over three more touchdowns in the final 20 minutes to settle the issue.

Xavier	0	14	13	6-33
Arizona State	7	0	7	7-21

Scoring Summary

- ASC - White 1 pass from Coleman (Fuller kick)
- XU - Wilke (Keefe kick)
- XU - O'Brien (Keefe kick)
- ASC - Coleman 1 run (Fuller kick)
- XU - McQuade (kick failed)
- XU - Finnell (Keefe kick)

1941 SUN BOWL

Case Western Reserve 26, Arizona State 13 • January 1 • El Paso, Texas
The Sun Bowl • Attendance: 12,000

Western Reserve came from behind in the second half to defeat coach Dixie Howell's Arizona State Bulldogs. The Cleveland, Ohio, eleven scored first on Steve Belichick's short plunge, but Arizona State nearly pulled even in the second quarter on a 10-yard scoring pass from Joe Hernandez to Wayne Pitts that made the score Western Reserve 7, ASTC 6. Shortly thereafter, Hascall Henshaw put the Bulldogs ahead with a spectacular 94-yard scoring dash. But it was all Western Reserve in the second half, as Willis Waggle, Richard Booth and Joe Reis scored on short runs.

Western Reserve	7	0	6	13-26
Arizona State	0	13	0	0-13

Scoring Summary

- WR - Belichick 1 run (Belichick kick)
- ASTC- Pitts 10 pass from Hernandez (kick failed)
- ASTC- Henshaw 94 run (Hernandez kick)
- WR - Waggle 10 return of blocked kick (kick failed)
- WR - Booth 5 run (Skoczen kick)
- WR - Reis 3 run (kick failed)

1940 SUN BOWL

Arizona State 0, Catholic University 0
January 1 • El Paso, Texas
The Sun Bowl • Attendance: 13,000

Arizona State's Bulldogs met Catholic University of Washington, D.C., in the Bulldogs' first-ever postseason bowl appearance, the Sun Bowl in El Paso, Texas. Coach Dixie Howell's 1939 team had been a defensive wonder, and it continued the tradition in the Sun Bowl, blanking the strong Cardinals and limiting them to only four first downs. Wayne (Ripper) Pitts and Bill (Dub) Davis were backfield standouts and center Ray Green was an anchor of the ASTC line. The Dogs rolled up a big statistical advantage, but were stopped on four fumble losses and several pass interceptions in the scoreless game.

2005 INSIGHT BOWL

2000 ALOHA BOWL

Hascall Henshaw put Arizona State ahead with this spectacular 94-yard touchdown run versus Case Western Reserve in the 1941 Sun Bowl.
